JAKE DICKERT
HEAD COACH / FIRST YEAR

Washington State University Director of Athletics Pat Chun announced Nov. 27, 2021 that Jake Dickert had been named the Cougars' Head Football Coach. Dickert agreed in principle to a five-year contract in becoming the 34th head football coach in program history.

Dickert spent the final five games of the regular season serving as the Cougar's acting head coach, leading WSU to a 3-2 record with wins over Arizona State, Arizona and a dominating 40-13 Apple Cup victory in Seattle before WSU earned a trip to the Tony The Tiger Sun Bowl. The Apple Cup win snapped a seven-game skid to Washington and was WSU's largest margin of victory in series history.

Under Dickert's leadership, the Cougar defense was a huge spark in 2021, leading the Pac-12 with 29 takeaways, fifth-most nationally, while also leading the Pac-12 and tied for ninth nationally in turnover margin. Last season, 14 players earned All-Pac-12 honors including first-team selections in right tackle Abraham Lucas, kicker Dean Janikowski and EDGE Ron Stone Jr. while punter Nick Haberer was named a Freshman All-American.

Entering the 2021 season, Dickert was in his second year as WSU's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. In his first season in Pullman, the Washington State defense produced four All-Pac-12 Conference selections and led the league with eight forced fumbles and was fourth in rush defense (154.8), a 30-yard improvement from the previous season.

Dickert arrived at WSU after working three seasons at the University of Wyoming (2017-19) including the 2019 campaign as the defensive coordinator while working with the linebackers and safeties.

In 2019, the Cowboys were sixth in the country in red zone defense, No. 11 in the country in rush defense (107.1) and scoring defense (17.8), No. 40 tackles-for-loss (83) and No. 43 in total defense. Dickert saw four Cowboys earned All-Mountain West Conference honors led by second-team All-American linebacker and Butkus Award Finalist Logan Wilson while redshirt-freshman defensive end Solomon Byrd was named a Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America.

Dickert originally joined the Wyoming football staff in February, 2017 and coached the safeties for the 2017 and 2018 seasons before he was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2019 where he started the season coaching the linebackers and later coached the safeties. In his three seasons at Wyoming, Dickert coached a pair of future NFL safeties including three-time first-team All-Mountain West Conference pick Andrew Wingard and saw four players earn All-MWC honors in 2019 while another earned 2019 Freshman All-America accolades on the defensive line.

In 2018, Wyoming's defense was among the best in the nation, finishing the season No. 19 in total defense (326.2), No. 25 in rushing defense (129.5), No. 28 in scoring defense (22.0) and No. 32 in pass defense (196.7). Dickert coached senior safeties Andrew Wingard and Marcus Epps as Wingard ended his career tied for the Mountain West Conference career tackle record with 454. Wingard earned First Team All-Mountain West honors for the third consecutive season after being named to the preseason watch lists for the Chuck Bednarik, Bronko Nagurski and Jim Thorpe Awards in both 2017 and 2018. Epps concluded his career as the only three-time team captain in the modern era of Cowboy Football, recorded 325 career tackles and was a finalist for the 2018 Burlsworth Trophy, which is awarded to the nation's most outstanding player who began his career as a walk-on. Epps was selected in the sixth round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings where he played in seven games before playing in eight more with the Philadelphia Eagles. Wingard played in the 2019 East-West Shrine Game, was invited to the 2019 NFL Draft Combine and signed a free-agent contract with the Jacksonville Jaguars where he played all 16 games and made two starts as a rookie.

In his first season at Wyoming, Dickert helped the 2017 Cowboy defense become one of the best groups in the country as they led the country in takeaways (38), ranked ninth in scoring defense (17.5), were first in fumbles recovered (18), second in interceptions (20), eighth in defensive touchdowns scored (4 TD), No. 13 in pass defense (174.9) and No. 23 in total defense (335.2). Dickert coached first-team All-Mountain West strong safety Wingard while the safety tandem of Wingard and Epps led the Pokes in interceptions in 2017, with five and four interceptions, respectively.

Before arriving at Wyoming, Dickert spent the 2016 season as the safeties coach and co-special teams coordinator at South Dakota State. Earlier in his career, Dickert was a part of Bohl's coaching staff at North Dakota State from 2008-10.

In his one season on the South Dakota State coaching staff, Dickert helped guide the Jackrabbits to the 2016 Missouri Valley Football Conference Championship and a No. 8 seed in the 2016 NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Playoffs, where they advanced to the FCS National Quarterfinals.

As defensive coordinator and linebackers Coach at Minnesota State, Mankato for the 2014 and 2015 seasons Dickert was part of a coaching staff that led the Mavericks to back-to-back Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) championships and consecutive NCAA Division II Playoff berths, earning their way to the 2014 National Championship Game. Minnesota State posted a combined record of 24-3 over that two-year span. Dickert's 2014 defense ranked second in the nation in scoring defense (12.9), fourth in turnovers gained, No. 12 in pass defense efficiency and No. 15 in total defense. In 2015, the Mavericks ranked fifth in the nation in scoring defense (16.1), third in rushing defense, seventh in pass defense efficiency and sixth in total defense. He coached 16 All-Conference players, three First Team All-Americans and a two-time Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference Defensive Player of the Year.

In his first season as a college defensive coordinator in 2013 at Augustana, Dickert's defense ranked No. 20 in the nation at the NCAA Division II level in scoring defense, giving up only 19.5 ppg. Augustana ranked second in the NSIC in pass defense, third in rushing defense and third in total defense. He coached five All-Conference players at Augustana.

In 2012, he served as the defensive backs coach at Southeast Missouri State. The Redhawks ranked No. 18 in the nation in turnovers gained (25) and No. 23 in interceptions (13). Southeast Missouri State ranked No. 2 in the Ohio Valley Conference in pass defense. Dickert also coached a First Team All-Conference strong safety at Southeast Missouri.

Dickert spent the 2011 season as the special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach at South Dakota, where the Coyotes ranked second in the Great West Conference in fewest passing yards allowed and interceptions. He coached three all-conference performers while at South Dakota and his special teams units ranked in the Top 10 in

He joined the North Dakota State coaching staff in 2008 as a defensive graduate assistant on Bohl's staff. In 2009 and 2010, he was elevated to serve as safeties coach for the Bison. The 2010 NDSU team advanced to the FCS National Quarterfinals. Dickert began his college coaching career in 2007 as a defensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, Wisconsin-Stevens Point.

He played football at Wisconsin-Stevens Point from 2002-06 where he earned All-Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) honors as a wide receiver his senior season of 2006 and was named his team's Wide Receiver of the Year both his junior and senior seasons. Dickert earned his bachelor's degree in secondary math education from Wisconsin-Stevens Point in 2007, and completed his master's degree in general education, also from UW-Stevens Point in 2009.

He and his wife, Candice, have three children, daughter Rylee and sons Jett and Jace.

ERIC MORRIS

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / QUARTERBACKS
FIRST YEAR

Eric Morris begins his second stint in Pullman after being named the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, Dec. 8, 2021.

Morris, who spent the 2012 season coaching inside receivers for the Cougars, returns to Pullman after spending the past four seasons as head coach at the University of Incarnate Word in San Antonio, Texas. In 2021, Morris guided the Cardinals to the Southland Conference title, reached the NCAA FCS Second Round, and finished with a 10-3 record, the winningest record in program history.

After becoming head coach prior to the 2018 season, following UIW's 1-10 record in 2017, Morris twice was named the Southland Conference Coach of the year (2018, 2021), led the Cardinals to two Southland Conference titles (2018, 2021), twice reached the FCS playoffs, and left UIW as the program record holder for most wins with 24.

During his time in San Antonio, Morris orchestrated an offense that finished in the top 10 nationally for total offense in three of his four seasons, including leading the nation in 2020-21 at 552.3 yards per game. His teams finished in the top five in scoring each of the last two seasons, third in 2020-21 (42.0 ppg) and fifth in 2021 at 39.5 ppg.

In 2021, Morris mentored sophomore Cameron Ward, who finished the season garnering Stats Perform FCS All-America Second Team honors as well as being named to the Hero Sports 2021 Sophomore All-American Team. Ward received Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Year honors after breaking UIW program records for most career passing touchdowns and passing yards, and was a finalist for the Walter Payton Award.

Morris also oversaw the development of wide receiver Taylor Grimes, who earned multiple All-American honors in 2021 and was named Southland Conference Newcomer of the Year after setting single-season records for receiving yards (1,145) and touchdown receptions (15).

In 2019, Morris mentored sophomore quarterback Jon Copeland, who threw for 3,341 yards and 22 touchdowns en route to HERO Sports Sophomore All-America honorable mention honors. This followed an historic 2018 season for UIW football, as Morris guided the Cardinals to one of the best turnarounds in the FCS, being named the 2018 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Regional Coach of the Year, the 2018 Southland Conference Coach of the Year, and an Eddie Robinson Award finalist.

In 2018, Morris took over a team with a 1-10 overall record in 2017 and guided it to a 6-4 regular season record, a conference championship and the program's first FCS Playoff appearance in his first season. His high-powered offense led to Copeland being named Southland Conference Freshman of the Year, a first in school history. And it wasn't just on the offensive side, as keeping with Coach Dickert's philosophy, the Cardinals led the FCS with 29 turnovers gained.

Prior to Incarnate Word, Morris spent five seasons (2013-17) as the offensive coordinator at his alma mater, Texas Tech. During that time, Morris helped the Red Raiders to three bowl games and guided one of the top offenses in the nation. From 2013-17, Texas Tech's offense scored over 30 points per game all five seasons, and all five years was ranked among the top 16 teams in total offense, including leading the nation in 2016 at 564.4 yards per game. The Tech offense was highlighted by quarterback Patrick Mahomes, who Morris recruited and coached in Lubbock.

Tech averaged at least 40 points per game in two of his final three seasons and over 30 points during Morris' entire tenure on staff. The Red Raiders snapped the single-season school record with 45.1 points per game in 2015 and then averaged 43.7 points per game in 2016.

The Red Raiders' success offensively in 2015 pushed Tech to an appearance in the AdvoCare V100 Texas Bowl, its second postseason trip during Morris' tenure. Tech closed the 2015 campaign ranked second nationally in total offense, scoring offense as well as passing offense. Tech was one of just two schools nationally and the only team in a power-five conference to score 25 or more points in every game of the 2015 season.

Morris helped Tech boast a balanced attack that featured a 4,000-yard passer in Patrick Mahomes II, a 1,000-yard rusher in DeAndre Washington and a 1,000-yard receiver in Jakeem Grant. It marked the first time in program history where three different Red Raiders reached each of those three marks during the same season.

Under Morris' guidance, Grant ended his career as the all-time leading receiver in Tech history. Grant, an All-America honoree by several publications, totaled 3,164 receiving yards over his four seasons, breaking the previous school record that was set by two-time Biletnikoff Award winner Michael Crabtree.

In addition, Grant snapped the Tech single-season record for all-purpose yards after totaling 2,353 on the year, including 1,268 yards through the air. He also returned a pair of kickoffs for a touchdown, breaking the Tech career record in the process.

Following Grant's departure, Morris tutored Jonathan Giles and Keke Coutee – both true sophomores at the time – to breakout seasons in 2016. Giles earned All-Big 12 second team honors after recording 1,158 receiving yards and 13 touchdowns, both of which ranked in the top 10 in Tech single-season history. Coutee, meanwhile, finished second on the team with 890 receiving yards and seven touchdowns while fellow inside receiver Cameron Batson hauled in 60 passes – second-most on the team – for 644 yards and eight touchdowns.

In Morris' first season as the lone offensive coordinator, Tech finished with a No. 10 national ranking in total offense as the Red Raiders averaged 504.1 yards-per-game in 2014. Additionally, the passing offense ended the season with a No. 5 national ranking as Tech averaged 351.1 yards per game through the air.

Morris shared offensive coordinator responsibilities during his debut season in 2013, where the Red Raiders displayed the nation's second-ranked passing attack (392.8 yards per game) and the eighth-best unit for total offense (511.0 ypg). The solid season offensively pushed Tech to an appearance in the National University Holiday Bowl where the Red Raiders pulled off a stunning 37-23 victory over No. 16 Arizona State.

Jace Amaro closed 2013 campaign with one of the best seasons by a receiver in program history. Amaro, a second-round selection in the 2013 NFL Draft by the New York Jets, set an NCAA FBS record for most receiving yards (1,352) in a single season by a tight end and was named an NCAA Consensus All-American.

Morris, a native of Shallowater, Texas, returned to his roots in West Texas after spending the 2012 season as the inside receivers coach for former Tech head coach Mike Leach at Washington State. In his only season, the Washington State receiving corps hauled in 3,965 yards as well as 23 touchdowns.

Prior to Pullman, Morris spent two years on Kevin Sumlin's staff at the University of Houston, first as an offensive graduate assistant in 2010 and then as the offensive quality control assistant in 2011. Kingsbury was on the same staff as Morris at the time as he served as quarterbacks coach in 2010 before being promoted to Morris and Kingsbury helped produce one of the nation's top offenses in 2011 as Houston led the country in passing (443.8 yards per game), total offense (599.0 yards per game) and scoring average (50.8 points per game). Houston concluded the season with a 12-1 record which included a win over Penn State in the TicketCity Bowl.

Before joining the coaching profession, Morris played in the Canadian Football League. He joined the Saskatchewan Roughriders out of training camp in 2009 while battling a knee injury.

Morris was a versatile, all-round player during his four seasons as a Red Raider wide receiver (2005-08). Morris caught 184 passes for 1,965 yards and 19 touchdowns over his four seasons, the majority of which came during his final two years. He concluded his career as one of four players in NCAA FBS history to be part of multiple receiving trios where each player recorded at least 60 receptions in a season.

Morris was also instrumental as Tech's primary punt returner the final two seasons where he averaged just over 10 yards a return. He was named to the All-Big 12 second team as a punt returner by the Fort Worth Star Telegram as a senior and was also a member of the 2007 Academic All-Big 12 first team.

Morris arrived at Tech following a stellar prep career at Shallowater High School where he was named the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal All-South Plains Super Team Offensive Player of the Year as a senior in 2003. He finished with 926 rushing yards that season and 24 touchdowns while throwing for another 1,926 yards and 22 touchdowns.

Morris received his bachelor's degree in communications studies from Texas Tech in 2008. He and his wife, Maggie, are parents to two sons, Nicholas and George.

BRIAN WARD

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR / LINEBACKERS
FIRST YEAR

Brian Ward begins his first season on the Cougars coaching staff after being named defensive coordinator/linebackers coach Dec. 8, 2021. Ward is no stranger to Head Coach Jake Dickert as the two previously worked alongside each other at North Dakota State in 2010.

Ward arrives in Pullman having spent the past two years as defensive coordinator at the University of Nevada. In 2021, Nevada posted an 8-4 record and earned an invitation to the Quick Lane Bowl against Western Michigan.

Ward guided an opportunistic defense during his time in Reno, showing marked improvement in total defense, scoring defense, and most notably, turnovers gained from the year prior to his arrival (2019) to this season. The Nevada defense allowed 24.4 points per game this season, 7.5 better than in 2019. The Wolf Pack defense also improved from 48th in turnovers gained in 2019 (19) to eighth in 2021 with 25.

A veteran defensive coach who has worked at all levels of college football, Ward worked specifically with the defensive line in 2021 after overseeing the linebacker corps in 2020.

Five members of the Wolf Pack defense earned All-Mountain West recognition in 2020, linebacker Lawson Hall being named to the Second Team. Also named to the Second Team were defensive linemen Sam Hammond and Dom Peterson, while defensive backs Berdale Robins and Tyson Williams were each voted All-Mountain West Honorable Mention.

Hall paced the Wolf Pack defense in tackles (65) and tackles-for-loss (8.5), while also racking up 3.0 sacks. As a unit, the Nevada defense ranked 36th in the FBS in rushing defense (138.1 yards per game), and averaged 2.56 sacks per game. The Pack's defensive showing was highlighted by a standout effort at the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, in which it recorded eight sacks and intercepted three passes in the 38-27 victory over Tulane.

Ward arrived at Nevada following a four-year stint at Syracuse with the Orange, where he coached two-time All-ACC selection and current Indianapolis Colts linebacker Zaire Franklin. He was hired as defensive coordinator in 2016 and added the role of linebackers coach in 2017. The rise of the Syracuse defense played a large role in the Orange's win over No. 2 Clemson in 2017 and its 10-3 season in 2018 where the Orange finished the year ranked 14th in the nation and defeated No. 15 West Virginia in the 2018 Camping World Bowl.

Ward's defenses at Syracuse were nationally relevant, including back-to-back seasons (2017 and 2018) in which the Orange led the nation in turnovers forced in 2018, forced more turnovers in 2017 and 2018 than any other FBS team in the nation, and finished in the top 15 in third-down defense. Syracuse was also top-six nationally in 2018 in turnovers gained, interceptions, fumbles recovered and sacks, while also setting the school record for sacks. He helped develop a quintet of players into All-Atlantic Coast Conference selections during his time with the Orange.

Before joining the Orange, Ward served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for Bowling Green in 2015. He oversaw a defense that improved in several statistical categories from the previous year and featured two All-MAC selections at linebacker, including first-team honoree Austin Valdez. Ward also served as Bowling Green's head coach for the 2015 GoDaddy Bowl versus Georgia Southern.

Ward was a nominee for the Broyles Award – given to the nation's top assistant coach – in 2017 at Syracuse and he was one of three FBS finalists for Linebackers Coach of the Year from FootballScoop.com in 2015 while at Bowling Green.

Ward's defensive improvements were a major factor in Bowling Green winning the 2015 Mid-American Conference (MAC) title. The Falcons surrendered 4.6 fewer points and nearly 76 yards less of total offense per game than they did in 2014. In addition, Bowling Green moved up the NCAA statistical rankings in passing defense (up 44 spots), rushing defense (up 20 spots), scoring defense (from 106 to 84) and total defense (from 115 to 86). Bowling Green finished 13th nationally in turnovers gained (27) and eighth in interceptions (20). Valdez was the leader of the unit, racking up 144 tackles and ranking 10th in the FBS in tackles per game (10.3).

From 2012-14, Ward was the defensive coordinator at Western Illinois where he molded the Leathernecks into one of the top defenses in FCS football. Ward's 2013 unit ranked seventh in the nation in total defense (305.3 ypg) and third nationally in passing defense (149.0 ypg). The next year, the Leathernecks put on one of the most impressive defensive displays of the season against Wisconsin running back Melvin Gordon. Western Illinois held the Heisman Trophy finalist to 38 yards on 17 carries (2.2 yards per carry).

Before joining Western Illinois, Ward was the defensive coordinator at Drake in 2011 where he helped the Bulldogs to a 9-2 record and the Pioneer Football League championship.

Ward's other previous coaching stops include: McPherson College (1997, 2007-09), Glendale Community College (1999-2000), Wabash College (2001-04), Missouri Southern State (2005) and North Dakota State (2010). He spent the 2006 season as the defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Tulsa Union High School in Oklahoma.

A 1997 graduate of McPherson College, Ward served as the head coach of his alma mater for three seasons from 2007-09, compiling a 17-14 (.548) record. In his final season, he led the Bulldogs to a 9-2 mark, the program's first berth in the NAIA national playoffs, and was named CollegeFanz.com Sports Network NAIA Coach of the Year. During his head-coaching tenure, the Bulldogs boasted seven All-Americans, two Kansas Collegiate Athletic Conference (KCAC) Players of the Year, seven NAIA Scholar-Athletes and 39 All-KCAC selections.

Ward holds a bachelor's degree in history from

PETE KALIGIS

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / DEFENSIVE TACKLES
FIRST YEAR

Pete Kaligis begins his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff after being named the assistant head coach/defensive tackles coach on Jan. 3, 2022. Kaligis and Dickert previous worked together from 2017-19 while both were on Craig Bohl's defensive staff at Wyoming, along with edges coach A.J. Cooper.

Kaligis arrives in Pullman having spent the past 13 seasons at Wyoming. During his time in Laramie, Kaligis served multiple roles, beginning with offensive line coach (2009), adding running backs and assistant head coach duties in 2012, offensive coordinator/running backs/assistant head coach in 2013, then transitioned to the other side of the ball in 2014, spending six years working with defensive tackles, then added defensive run game coordinator duties for his final two seasons.

Kaligis coached six bowl teams during his tenure and was a part of some of the best defenses in the country. In 2017, he coached First-Team All-Mountain West defensive tackle Youhanna Ghaifan, while also mentoring notable players Sidney Malauulu and Patrick Mertens, both of whom signed NFL free agent contracts.

In 2019, the Cowboy defense was again among the best in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS), ranking: No. 11 in the nation in rushing defense, allowing opponents only 17.8 points per game, and No. 11 rushing defense, giving up only 107.1 rushing yards per game to opponents. Wyoming also ranked: No. 6 in the FBS in redzone defense (allowing opponents to convert only 68.9 percent of their opportunities), No. 12 in the country in defensive touchdowns scored (3), No. 31 in interceptions (12), No. 37 in defensive pass efficiency (123.23).

Wyoming's 2018 defense was one of the best in the nation. The Cowboys ranked No. 19 in the nation in total defense (allowing opponents only 326.2 yards per game), were No. 25 in the NCAA in rushing defense (129.5 yards per game), ranked No. 28 in scoring defense (giving up only 22.0 points per game) and were No. 32 in pass defense (196.7 yards per game). The UW defense also ranked No. 16 in the country in fewest first downs allowed to opponents (223). One of the Cowboy seniors coached by Kaligis in 2018 was nose tackle Sidney Malauulu, who attended rookie camp with the San Francisco 49ers following the 2019 NFL Draft.

In 2017, the Cowboy defense enjoyed an exceptional season. Wyoming's defense ranked No. 1 in the nation in takeaways in 2017, forcing 38 opponent turnovers. The Pokes ranked No. 9 in the country in scoring defense, allowing opponents only 17.5 points per game. UW ranked No. 1 in the NCAA in fumbles recovered (18), No. 2 in the nation in interceptions (20), No. 8 in defensive touchdowns scored (4 TDs), No. 13 in pass defense (174.9 passing yards allowed), and No. 23 in total defense (335.2 total yards allowed). Kaligis coached First Team All-Mountain West defensive tackle Youhanna Ghaifan in 2017.

As a unit, the 2016 Cowboy defense scored five defensive touchdowns to rank No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 3 in the nation. Wyoming recovered 12 opponent fumbles, ranking No. 1 in the MW and No. 15 in the NCAA. The Cowboys' 15 interceptions were second best in the conference and 22nd nationally. UW's 27 total forced turnovers ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 10 in the country.

In his first season coaching the Cowboys' interior defensive line in 2014, he coached senior defensive tackle Patrick Mertens. Mertens signed as a free agent with the Baltimore Ravens of the NFL following his senior year.

Kaligis served as Wyoming's assistant head coach, co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach in 2013. Sophomore running back Shaun Wick narrowly missed the 1,000-yard plateau in 2013, rushing for 979 yards. Wick ended his Wyoming career in 2016 with 2,533 career rushing yards to rank No. 6 on the Wyoming career list.

In 2013, Wyoming ranked 22nd in the nation in total offense (472.8 yards per game) and 26th in passing offense (282.4 yards per game). The Wyoming offense ranked second in the Mountain West Conference and 38th in the nation in passing offense in 2012, averaging 265.4 yards per game.

The 2012 season saw Kaligis coach First Team All-Mountain West center Nick Carlson. Carlson was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List for the second time his senior season. The Rimington Trophy honors the nation's top center each season. Carlson was also named to the 2012 Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List, and was one of only 10 national finalists for the ARA Sportsmanship Award as a senior. Carlson (Tampa Bay Buccaneers) and senior offensive tackles Josh Leonard (Oakland Raiders) and Kyle Magnuson (Oakland Raiders) each were invited to NFL camps as free agents following their senior seasons.

In 2011, the Cowboy offense ranked No. 11 in the nation in fewest sacks allowed, allowing only 12 sacks in 13 games. Three UW offensive linemen earned Mountain West All-Conference honors in 2011. Senior tackle Clayton Kirven and junior center Nick Carlson were named Second Team All-Mountain West. Sophomore offensive guard Tyler Strong earned Honorable Mention All-Conference recognition. Carlson was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List for the first time in 2011.

Kaligis coached sophomore center Carlson in 2010. Carlson went on to earn Honorable Mention All-Mountain West Conference honors. One of Kaligis' 2009 Cowboys, offensive tackle Ryan Otterson, signed a free-agent contract with the San Diego Chargers following the 2010 NFL Draft.

Kaligis has been a part of 16 teams that advanced to postseason play, including nine bowl appearances with NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision teams. Six of those bowl appearances came at Wyoming, including the Cowboys' victories in the 2021 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl, the 2017 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, appearance in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl, bid to the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl and win in the 2009 New Mexico Bowl. Kaligis was a strength and conditioning coach at Washington when the Huskies played in the 1999 Holiday Bowl, won the 2000 Rose Bowl (defeating Purdue, 34-24) and played in the 2002 Sun Bowl.

An outstanding college football player and track and field athlete, Kaligis started all 12 games at offensive guard for the Washington Huskies and late head football coach Don James when they captured the 1991 National Championship. The Huskies posted a perfect 12-0 record and defeated Michigan, 34-14, in the Rose Bowl on Jan. 1, 1992, to win the national title. Kaligis was a member of the Husky Football team from 1990-94.

He was an All-American in track and field in the shot put. He won the gold medal at the 1995 U.S. Olympic Festival, and placed third in the 1995 University Games. He participated in the 1996 Olympic Trials in track and field in the shot put.

Kaligis earned his B.A. degree in sociology and law enforcement at Washington in 1994. He and his wife, Kristine, have a daughter, Harlie Grace, and a son, Cooper.

A.J. COOPER
DEFENSIVE RUN-GAME COORDINATOR / EDGES
THIRD YEAR

A.J. Cooper is in his third season at Washington State and first as defensive run game coordinator while also working with the edges. Cooper coached the edges in 2020 and took on additional duties as defensive line coach Oct. 22, 2021.

Cooper completed his second season on the Cougar staff in 2021, where he mentored a young edges group into one of the best in the Pac-12 Conference. Led by 2021 All-Pac-12 First-Team selection Ron Stone Jr. and 2021 honorable mention pick Brennan Jackson, the Cougar edge group combined for 153 tackles, 29 tackles-for-loss and 16.5 sacks. Midway through the 2021 season, Cooper added the defensive tackles to his duties due to changes in the Cougar coaching staff. Over those final seven games, the Cougar defense held opponents to more than three fewer points per game, allowed opponents 31.6 fewer yards per game, all while leading the Pac-12 for the season in turnover margin and defensive takeaways.

In his first season in Pullman, the Washington State defense produced four All-Pac-12 Conference selections including Edge Brennan Jackson who finished the shortened season fourth on team with 19 tackles and second with 3.5 tackles-for-loss and tied for the team lead. The Cougar defense led the league with eight forced fumbles and was fourth in rush defense (154.8), a 30-yard improvement from the previous season.

Cooper, who owns 16 years of college coaching experience, arrived at Washington State after spending six seasons working the defensive ends and special teams for the University of Wyoming. Prior to the 2019 season, Cooper was promoted to serve as the Cowboys' defensive run-game coordinator. He worked the previous eight seasons at North Dakota State including the final five seasons coaching the Bison defensive ends. For Wyoming, he coached five All-Mountain West Conference players including one Special Teams Player of the Year and one Freshman All-American on the defensive line.

Cooper helped the 2019 Cowboys finish sixth in the country in red zone defense, No. 11 in the country in rush defense (107.1) and scoring defense (17.8). No. 40 in tackles-for-loss (83) and No. 43 in total defense. Cooper helped coach All-Mountain West Conference second-team selection punt returner Austin Conway and saw redshirt-freshman defensive end Solomon Byrd earn Freshman All-America honors from the Football Writers of America.

In 2018, Wyoming's defense was among the best in the nation, finishing the season No. 19 in total defense (326.2), No. 25 in rushing defense (129.5), No. 28 in scoring defense (22.0) and No. 32 in pass defense (196.7). On special teams, Wyoming's field-goal unit protected kicker Cooper Rothe, who led the nation in field-goal percentage at 94.1 percent (16-of-17), was named the 2018 Mountain West Special Teams Player of the Year and First Team All-MWC, and a Lou Groza Award Finalist.

The 2017 Cowboy defense become one of the best groups in the country as they led the country in takeaways (38), ranked ninth in scoring defense (17.5), were first in fumbles recovered (18), second in interceptions (20), eighth in defensive touchdowns scored (4), No. 13 in pass defense (174.9) and No. 23 in total defense (335.2). Cowboy special teams matched the impressive numbers, leading the country in kickoff return (28.3) and No. 30 in the nation in punt return (10.2) while the punt return coverage team was No. 27 nationally (4.7). Individually, Cowboy kickoff returner Tyler Hall earned Honorable Mention All-Mountain

West honors as a sophomore.

As a unit, the 2016 Cowboy defense ranked first in the country with five defensive touchdowns, No. 10 with 25 takeaways, No. 15 with 12 fumble recoveries, No. 22 with 15 interceptions. For Cooper, sophomore defensive end Kevin Prosser ranked ninth in the conference with 6.5 sacks. Several of Cooper's special teams units excelled as well, the punt team ranked No. 24 in the nation in punt return defense (4.6) while net punting (39.3) ranked No. 31 in the country behind two-time Ray Guy Award Watch List punter Ethan Wood. The kick return team was fourth in the Mountain West (22.2) led by kick returner D.J. May who earned second-team All-MWC honors after averaging 27.9 yards-per-return, ninth-best in the country.

The 2015 season saw Wyoming senior defensive end Eddie Yarbrough earn second-team All-MWC honors and was named to the Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List and the Ted Hendricks Award Watch List as a junior and senior. He concluded his Wyoming playing career as the all-time leader in tackles for loss (39) and ninth all-time in career sacks (21.5), and signed as a free agent with the Denver Broncos following the 2016 NFL Draft. Several special teams' units also performed well in 2015 led by the kickoff coverage team who led the league in allowing 21.3 yards per kickoff return while the punt coverage team ranked was No. 21 nationally (4.6). The Cowboys averaged 23.5 yards per kick return to rank No. 29 in the nation led by kick returner D.J. May averaged 26.2 yards per kickoff return to rank No. 24 in the NCAA.

In 2014, Cooper also coached defensive end Yarbrough, who earned First Team All-Mountain West Conference honors as a junior.

From 2009 through 2013, Cooper coached the North Dakota State defensive ends and added special teams to his coaching responsibilities in 2013. He helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship, tying both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories.

As the defensive ends coach at North Dakota State, Cooper helped the Bison lead the nation in scoring defense for three consecutive seasons (2011-13), holding opponents to only 12.7 ppg in 2011, 11.5 ppg in 2012 and only 11.3 ppg in 2013. The 2013 Bison defense also ranked third in the FCS in total defense (255.9, second in pass efficiency defense (97.59), third in rushing defense (91.3) and eighth in passing yards allowed (164.6).

In addition to leading the nation in scoring defense in 2012, NDSU led the nation in total defense (234.5), was first in first downs allowed (12.67), second in pass defense (140.6) and fourth in rushing defense (93.9).

Prior to becoming the defensive ends coach in 2009, Cooper worked with the offensive line and tight ends as a student assistant and graduate assistant with the program from 2006-08. Prominent players who Cooper coached at North Dakota State included Coulter Boyer, who in 2011 earned Third Team All-America honors as a defensive end from Beyond Sports College

Network and Honorable Mention All-America honors from College Sports Journal. Cooper coached defensive end Cole Jirik, who was a Second Team All-America selection by College Sports Madness in 2012. A third NDSU defensive end who Cooper coached and went on to earn All-Conference recognition was Kyle Emanuel, who was a Second Team All-MVFC selection in 2013.

An outstanding tight end for the Bison in the 2004 and 2005 seasons, Cooper earned Honorable Mention All-America honors from the Football Gazette in '05. He caught 24 passes for 473 yards (19.7 yards per catch) and scored four touchdowns as a senior. He was selected First Team All-Great West Football Conference as a senior, and also earned All-Northwest Region honors. Following his college playing career, Cooper signed a free-agent contract with the Green Bay Packers in 2006.

Originally from Phoenix, Ariz., Cooper began his college playing career at Glendale Community College where he led all junior college tight ends in three different categories as a sophomore, receptions (44), receiving yards (578) and touchdown receptions (8).

Cooper earned his bachelor's degree from NDSU in criminal justice in 2006. He and his wife, Amanda, who is a former NDSU women's basketball player, were married in July 2011. They have two sons, Carter Johnson and Cameron Myles.

NICK
WHITWORTH
TIGHT ENDS / SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
FIRST YEAR

Nick Whitworth begins his first season as a member of Head Coach Jake Dickert's coaching staff, being named tight ends coach/special teams coordinator on Jan. 14, 2022.

Whitworth joins the Cougar program having spent the past three seasons as the special teams coordinator/running backs coach at Texas State in San Marcos, Texas.

During his time at Texas State, Whitworth led a resurgence in special teams play as the Bobcats led the Sun Belt Conference in punt returns and kickoff coverage during the 2020 season. During that season, The Bobcats featured Texas State's first FBS First-Team All-American return specialist Jeremiah Haydel, an All-Sun Belt Conference punter, and kicker. Haydel ranked third nationally in combined kick return yardage and was one of only two FBS players to return a kickoff and punt for touchdowns in his first season as a returner. Seamus O'Kelly was named Second-Team All-Sun Belt Conference punter by Pro Football Focus after averaging 41.0 yards on 57 punts. Phil Steele named Seth Keller a Fourth-Team All-Sun Belt kicker after scoring 62 points with eight field goals and 32 extra points.

The Bobcat offense was also stellar in 2020, increase its rushing output by nearly 65 percent from the previous season and averaged 369.7 yards of total offense and 27.7 points per game. It was the most yards gained for the Bobcats since 2015 and the most points scored since 2014.

Whitworth also coached running backs Brock Sturges, Calvin Hill, and Jahmyl Jeter, who combined to rush for 1453 yards and 13 touchdowns on 259 carries in 2020. Hill was a Third-Team All-Sun Belt selection by Pro Football Focus, and Sturges was named Honorable Mention All-Sun Belt in a poll of Sun Belt coaches and media.

The Bobcats also ranked third among Sun Belt leaders in kickoff returns with a 23.1 average in 2019. DeJordan Mask led the league in kickoff returns with a 29.5 average, while Hutch White was second in punt returns with an 8.6 average that year.

Prior to Texas State, Whitworth spent four seasons

(2015-18) at Portland State and turned former wide receiver David Jones into a 1,000-yard rusher as a running back. The Vikings ran for over 3,000 yards and 33 touchdowns in 2015. Meanwhile on special teams, kicker Jonathan Gonzales enjoyed an All-Conference season and punter Marcus Kinsella became one of the most reliable players on the team, kick returner Kahlil Dawson averaged over 25 yards per return, and long snapper Kameron Canaday earned Third-Team All-American honors.

In 2016, Portland State's offensive backfield averaged 243 yards per game and 35 total touchdowns. Nate Tago and Paris Penn earned Honorable Mention All-Big Sky Conference honors after combining for over 1,400 yards and 20 TDs. Meanwhile, Gonzales was named Third-Team All-Big Sky and Kinsella was an Honorable Mention All-Big Sky selection.

Mitchell Thompson earned Second Team All-Big Sky honors in 2016 and was an Honorable Mention selection in 2017 as a special teams player. In 2018, his freshman kicker Cody Williams was named a Third-Team All-Conference kicker.

Whitworth arrived at Portland State after serving in a similar role at Central Washington from 2011-14. In 2013, his Wildcat special teams ranked fifth nationally in punt return defense, 11th in kick return average and 13th in kick coverage. The 2014 team led the nation in kick return average (25.7) and 18th in punt return average (14.4).

Before joining the Central Washington's staff, he was the offensive coordinator at Montana Western in 2010, and Idaho State's special teams recruiting and summer coordinator from 2003-10.

His 2010 special teams unit was the top overall unit in the Big Sky Conference after leading the league net punting, kick return defense and punt returns, and finishing second in kick returns.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant with the Bengals, working with the running backs and special teams, from 2001-2002.

Whitworth also played at Idaho State, earning Honorable Mention All-Conference honors as a running back and kick returner. He earned bachelor's degree in business administration and business finance at Idaho State in 2001.

Whitworth and his wife, Erin have one daughter, Olivia and one son, Colt.

MARK ATUAIA
RUNNING BACKS / FIRST YEAR

Mark Atuaia begins his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff after being named running backs coach on Jan. 3, 2022.

Atuaia (Ah-too-why-ah) spent the previous six seasons at the University of Virginia under head coach Bronco Mendenhall as the running backs coach.

With over three decades of experience in college football, Atuaia has guided multiple running backs to the NFL while leading his teams to success. In 2021, Atuaia helped Virginia amassing over 5,000 yards of total offense for the third time in the past four seasons.

Atuaia has been credited in playing a major role in the success of Virginia's running backs throughout his tenure. He was instrumental in the development of running back Wayne Taulapapa, who surpassed the 1,000-yard mark in his career during his 2021 campaign. In 2019, Taulapapa rushed for 12 touchdowns, the most by a Cavalier running back since Keith Payne's 14 in 2010. Taulapapa had four games with multiple rushing touchdowns, highlighted by three in the win over Florida State, including the game-winning score.

Atuaia guided Jordan Ellis to a stellar senior season in 2018, rushing for 1,026 yards and 10 touchdowns, becoming just the third 1,000-yard rusher at UVA since 2004. Ellis was UVA's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2013 and 15th overall. Ellis went on to appear in the East-West Shrine All-Star Game and sign a free agent contract with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Atuaia helped All-ACC running back Taquan Mizzell take a big step as a senior in 2016 as the tailback became the first player in ACC history with at least 1,500 career rushing and 1,500 career receiving yards. Under Atuaia's watchful eye, Mizzell developed into one of the nation's most durable backs, and was one of four players in the nation in 2016 to led his team in rushing (940) and receptions (52).

Community service was a hallmark of Atuaia's coaching experience at UVA. The team's Thursday's Heroes program has been recognized for its efforts to honor individuals across the state of Virginia who are dealing with personal adversity. In 2020, the ACC honored the Thursday's Heroes program with its "Game Changers" award, which recognizes and highlights specific conference teams' involvement with their local communities. Atuaia's position players were frequent visitors to the University's Children's Medical Center and local elementary schools as part of UVA's ACE (Athletes Committed to Education) program.

Atuaia has been with Mendenhall since 2013 when he joined the BYU staff as the running backs coach. In 2013 BYU's run game ranked No. 10 in the nation averaging 267.3 yards per game, setting a school record with 3,475 rushing yards. He tutored Jamaal Williams as the Cougar rushed for 1,233 yards and seven touchdowns in 2013 as a sophomore. Atuaia assisted in BYU's offense ranking No. 14 in scoring offensive in 2014 as BYU put up 37.1 points per game, the most points by a BYU team since 2001. In 2015 the BYU offense ranked No. 4 in the nation in red zone offense, scoring at a 94.3 percent clip.

Atuaia mentored Paul Lasike, a former BYU rugby All-American from Auckland, New Zealand. Under Atuaia's tutelage, the big running back played football for the first time ever in his life and after three seasons at BYU Lasike signed with the Chicago Bears in 2015.

Atuaia has a history of working with big, strong and powerful running backs. As a student assistant at BYU from 2005-11, Atuaia was instrumental in the development of former NFL running backs Fahu Tahj, Fui Vakapuna, Harvey Unga and Manase Tonga during their time at BYU.

A former running back at BYU during the 1991 and 1994-96 seasons, Atuaia first joined the BYU athletic department in June 2012 as the assistant to the athletics director for student services. He previously worked as the assistant to the dean of Student Life at BYU. He accepted that position after graduating in 2011 with both a doctor of jurisprudence from BYU's J. Reuben Clark Law School and a master of public administration from the George W. Romney Institute of Public Management at BYU's Marriott School of Management.

During Atuaia's four-year playing career, BYU achieved a 39-11-2 record, won three conference titles and was ranked in the final top-25 national rankings three times. In addition, the offense was ranked in the top 10 nationally during three of his four seasons.

As a senior in 1996 he started 13 games on BYU's 14-1 Cotton Bowl team that finished the year ranked No. 5 in the country after defeating Kansas State 19-15 on New Year's Day 1997. Atuaia also helped BYU defeat Oklahoma 31-6 in the 1994 Cooper Bowl to finish ranked No. 10 by CNN and No. 18 by The Associated Press with a 10-3 record.

Atuaia totaled 1,247 yards on 301 carries (4.1 yards per attempt) with 11 touchdowns during his college career, while adding 68 catches for 668 yards (9.8 yards per catch) and four scoring receptions. His career-long rush was 51 yards while his long reception went for 61 yards. Atuaia also added 113 return yards as a member of the kick return team his freshman and sophomore seasons.

A native of Laie, Hawaii, Atuaia prepped at Kahuku High School before attending BYU. He served as a missionary for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Tucson, Ariz., from 1992-93. He received his bachelor's degree from BYU-Hawaii in 2003.

Atuaia and his wife Elizabeth, an accomplished recording artist and lead singer for the 1980s pop group The Jets, are the parents of seven children. His brothers Alema (1993, 1995-96) and Donny (1995-1999) also played football at BYU.

RAY
BROWN
CORNERBACKS / FIRST YEAR

Ray Brown begins his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, serving as cornerbacks coach. Brown is no stranger to Pullman as he spent the 2013 season as a defensive graduate assistant on Mike Leach's staff.

Brown spent the 2021 season coaching cornerbacks at Utah State, helping the Aggies to an 11-3 record and a victory over Oregon State in the Jimmy Kimmel LA Bowl. The win capped an incredible turnaround for the Aggies, after going 1-5 during the 2020 season.

Prior to Utah State, Brown spent two seasons (2019-20) as the cornerbacks coach at Troy and three seasons (2016-18) at Abilene Christian, where he coached the defensive backs.

In 2020, Brown coached Terence Dunlap to second-team all-Sun Belt Conference honors at Troy as he finished sixth in the league with three interceptions and 11th with nine passes defended.

In his first season with the Trojans, Brown coached Will Sunderland to first-team all-Sun Belt honors as he intercepted four passes, returning one for a touchdown. Following his collegiate career, Sunderland signed a free agent contract with the Green Bay Packers.

While at Abilene Christian, the Wildcats were among the best in the nation defensively in 2018 and set a school record with 13 interceptions, paced by all-Southland Conference honorable mention selection Adonis Davis' four picks, as he led the league and ranked ninth at the FCS level in passes defended. Brown also coached Bolu Onifade to second-team all-Southland Conference honors that season.

In 2018, the Wildcats ranked sixth nationally in fourth-down defense (26.3 percent), 15th nationally in third-down defense (30.3 percent) and 16th nationally in rushing defense (113 yards per game). Additionally, Abilene ranked third in the Southland Conference in scoring defense and red zone defense. That season, the Wildcats knocked off No. 11 Nicholls State as the Abilene defense held the Colonels to just 12 points.

In his second season at Abilene Christian, Brown's secondary posted the top passing defense in the Southland Conference, allowing just 196.7 yards per game, an improvement of 81.8 yards per game from the previous season. That season, Brown coached Brandon Richmond to all-Southland Conference honorable mention honors.

Prior to his stint at Abilene Christian, Brown spent a pair of seasons as a graduate assistant at Arizona State (2014-15) working with the Sun Devils' cornerbacks. Arizona State won the 2015 Sun Bowl and completed just the second back-to-back 10-win seasons in school history, while cornerback Kareem Orr earned Freshman All-America honors. The Sun Devils ranked 23rd nationally in interceptions during his second season and 29th his first season.

Brown also played a key role in Arizona State signing the No. 1- and No. 2-rated junior college cornerbacks in the country, along with Orr, who led the Pac-12 in interceptions as a freshman.

Additionally, Brown coached Damarious Randall, who was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the first round of the 2015 NFL Draft with the 30th selection.

Brown began his Division I coaching career as a graduate assistant working with the safeties at Washington State in 2013, when the Cougars made their first bowl appearance in 10 years. Safety Deone Bucannon earned All-America honors, was rated the top strong safety in the country by NFL.com, and was selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the first round of the 2014 NFL Draft with the 27th selection.

Following his playing career at East Central University in Ada, Oklahoma, as a four-year starter at cornerback, Brown served as the running backs coach and run game coordinator at his alma mater for two years (2010-11), before taking over as the special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach at Oklahoma Baptist for the 2012 season.

Brown received his bachelor's degree in business marketing from East Central in 2009 and his master's degree in sports administration from East Central in 2011.

Brown and his wife, Amber, have three children, Gavin, Rylan and Peyton.

JOEL FILANI
WIDE RECEIVERS / FIRST YEAR

Joel Filani begins his first season on Jake Dickert's staff after being named the wide receivers coach on Jan. 3, 2022.

Filani, who spent the 2015 in an offensive quality control position for the Cougars, returns to Pullman having spent the past three seasons as the outside receivers coach at his alma mater, Texas Tech.

Filani's work was evident through his three seasons in Lubbock as he helped develop Ezukanma into an All-Big 12 first team wide receiver in 2020, a second-team selection in 2021 and a spot on the 2021 Biletnikoff Award Watch List. Ezukanma became the first Red Raider wide receiver to garner first team All-Big 12 accolades by the conference coaches since Red Raider great Michael Crabtree did so in 2008.

In his three seasons under Filani, Ezukanma has combined for 136 catches for 2,118 yards and 14 touchdowns, all while becoming the first Red Raider to lead the team in receiving yards in consecutive years since Jakeem Grant in 2014-15 and the first underclassman to do so since Crabtree in 2007-08.

RJ Turner also developed into one of Tech's top targets during Filani's first season in 2019 as he led the team with 45 receptions en route to being named an All-Big 12 honorable mention selection. Turner, who arrived at Tech as a graduate assistant from Louisiana-Monroe, led the team with three different games of at least 100 receiving yards with all three coming during conference play.

Filani joined Matt Wells' charter staff prior to the 2019 season, returning to his alma mater where he was a two-time All-Big 12 first team selection and remains one of the top wide receivers in school history. Filani recorded 2,667 receiving yards and 23 touchdowns through the air during his career from 2003-06, both of which still rank among the top career leaders in school history.

Filani's best season came as a senior in 2006 when he caught 91 passes for 1,300 yards and 13 touchdowns, ranking in the single-season top 10 for all three categories. Filani, who still ranks fifth to this date in single-season receiving yards, remains as one of only three Red Raider wide receivers to earn All-Big 12 first team accolades twice in a career, joining Crabtree (2007-08) and his former teammate Jarrett Hicks (2004-05).

Filani wrapped his Red Raider career with a memorable performance in the 2006 Insight Bowl as he caught 11 passes for 162 yards and a touchdown in a 44-41 overtime victory over Minnesota. He snapped the then Tech bowl records for both receptions and receiving yards that night on his way to helping lead the Red Raiders to the largest come-from-behind bowl victory in NCAA history.

His success in Tech's wide-open passing attack drew the attention of the Tennessee Titans, who selected Filani that next spring in the sixth round of the 2007 NFL Draft. Filani enjoyed a three-year NFL career with stops with the Minnesota Vikings, Seattle Seahawks, Detroit Lions, St. Louis Rams and Tampa Bay Buccaneers as well as the Titans. He concluded his professional career as a member of the Arena League's Chicago Rush in 2011.

Filani began his coaching career shortly after, accepting a graduate assistant position at Boise State from 2013-14 before moving to Washington State for the 2015 campaign. Washington State led the FBS in passing offense during his one season on staff, working as an offensive quality control assistant.

Filani departed the Washington State staff in 2016 to accept his first full-time coaching position at North Texas where he was part of a Mean Green program that won 23 games during his three seasons. In comparison, North Texas combined for only 23 victories in the five seasons prior to Filani's arrival and had not reached a bowl game since 2013.

North Texas boasted one of the nation's top passing attacks during Filani's tenure thanks in part to the play of Rico Bussey Jr., who shined at outside receiver in 2018. Bussey was among the top receivers in the country that season after hauling in 68 passes for 1,017 yards and 12 touchdowns. He closed the season as the Conference USA leader in receiving touchdowns and also ranked tied for eighth nationally in the category and 26th in receiving yards per game (84.8).

After three seasons under Filani, Bussey, who was an All-Conference USA first team honoree in 2018, was already fifth in program history with 20 career receiving touchdowns and eight career 100-yard games. His 12 receiving touchdowns from 2018 alone ranked tied for second in North Texas history. He eventually closed his career in 2019 ranked tied for fourth with 21 touchdown receptions and nine with 1,941 career yards, the bulk of which came under Filani's tutelage.

Filani also tutored Jalen Guyton to Conference USA Co-Newcomer of the Year and second team all-conference accolades in 2017 after the junior-college transfer finished with 49 catches for 775 yards and a team-leading nine touchdowns during his debut season. He joined Bussey as one of three North Texas receivers to land on the Biletnikoff Award watch list prior to the 2018 season.

Filani, a native of Phoenix, Arizona, received his bachelor's degree in finance from Texas Tech in 2006 and his master's degree in educational leadership from Boise State in 2014.

He and his wife, Shayla, have three sons, Caleb, Levi and Asher, and a daughter, Tenley.

JORDAN
MALONE
SAFETIES / NICKELS
THIRD YEAR

Jordan Malone begins his third season at Washington State coaching the safeties and nickels on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff. Malone began in 2020 as a defensive analyst before being named the cornerbacks coach Oct. 22, 2021 under Dickert.

Malone finished his second season on the Cougar coaching staff in 2021, beginning the year as a defensive analyst before being elevated to cornerbacks coach on Oct. 22. During his seven games overseeing that unit, the Cougar pass defense showed dramatic improvement, allowing 193.7 yards per game over the final six contests, compared to 236.6 ypg in the first seven games. Under Malone, the Cougar defense picked off eight passes in the final six games.

Malone mentored senior Jaylen Watson, who garnered 2021 All-Pac-12 honorable mention honors for the second-straight season, while Watson and fellow senior Derrick Langford Jr. each had two interceptions in 2021.

Prior to WSU, Malone worked three seasons as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Augustana University (S.D.) where he produced one of the top Division II defenses in the country in 2019; fourth in scoring defense, fifth in takeaways, eighth in the third-down defense, No. 12 in rush defense and No. 19 in total defense. In his three seasons leading the Augustana defense, Malone produced one All-American, one All-Region selection and 16 all-conference honorees.

Prior to Augustana, Malone worked the 2015 and 2016 seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Minnesota State University, Mankato where he coached the defensive backs, the punt and punt return teams and served as the recruiting coordinator. The 2015 defense finished among the top Division II defenses in the country including total defense, rushing defense, scoring defense and fourth-down defense while the punt team led all of Division II in net punting. In 2015, Malone helped three players earn

All-NSIC honorees, including an All-NSIC First Team selection in Jared Gillespie. Senior Justin Otto also went on to receive CoSIDA Academic All-American honors. In total, Maverick defensive backs tallied a total of nine interceptions and one fumble recovery.

In 2014, Malone served as the defensive backs coach and special teams coordinator for Augustana (S.D.). The Augie defensive backs tallied eight interceptions and two fumble recoveries. Prior to joining the Vikings' coaching staff, Malone spent the 2013 season with Augustana (Ill.) where he was responsible for the defensive backs and the strength and conditioning program. Malone boasted one all-conference player as the defense notched 24 turnovers.

Malone spent the 2010 season as the defensive coordinator and co-special teams coordinator at Simon Fraser University in British Columbia. Prior to his stint north of the border, he coached the outside linebackers and nickel backs at Central Arkansas in the 2008 and 2009 seasons where he guided three all-conference players. Malone also served as a graduate assistant working with the defensive backs at Emporia State University (Kan.) and Wayne State College (Neb.).

In the classroom, Malone earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from MSU in 2006, before completing his master's degree in health, physical education and recreation at Emporia State in 2007.

As a player, Malone played in 44 games through four seasons with the Purple and Gold and received All-NCC First Team and All-American honors in 2004. For his career, he tallied 216 tackles, seven interceptions, three fumble recoveries and ranked eighth all-time in solo tackles 141.

CLAY
MCGUIRE
OFFENSIVE LINE / FIRST YEAR

Clay McGuire begins his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, having been named the Cougars' offensive line coach Jan. 3, 2022.

McGuire returns to Pullman after spending the 2021 season as the offensive line coach at USC. In 2021, the Trojans led the Pac-12 in total offense at 443.9 yards per game, was first in passing offense at 298.3 ypg, and was first in both pass attempts and completions. The Trojan offensive line allowed the third-fewest sacks in the conference during the 2021 season.

He arrived at USC after coaching the offensive line at Texas State in 2019 and 2020. Bobcats left tackle Dalton Cooper was a 2020 Freshman All-American second teamer.

McGuire was the offensive coordinator and running backs coach at Texas Tech, his alma mater, in 2018, working under head coach Kliff Kingsbury. The Red Raiders ranked in the national Top 16 in both total offense (485.2) and points (37.3).

This marks McGuire's second stint as the Cougars offensive line coach, having worked previously on Mike Leach's staff from 2012-17. During that time, he recruited and mentored such notable Cougars as two-time (2016-17) All-American first-teamer Cody O'Connell, also an Outland Trophy finalist in 2016, 2015 All-Pac-12 first team pick Joe Dahl, who spent five seasons with the Detroit Lions, Cole Madison, two seasons with the Green Bay Packers, current Philadelphia Eagles first-round pick Andre Dillard, and four-time All-Pac-12 Conference selection Abe Lucas. The Cougars finished among the nation's top 10 teams in passing offense throughout McGuire's tenure and played in 4 bowl games (2013 New Mexico, 2015 Sun, 2016 and 2017 Holiday).

The 2017 Cougar offensive line, led by consensus All-American Cody O'Connell and 2019 first-round pick Andre Dillard, helped the WSU offense post 5,653 yards of total offense, eighth all-time in school history. WSU reached its third-straight bowl game with a second-consecutive appearance at the Holiday Bowl.

In 2016, the Cougar offensive line blocked for an offense that finished third in the nation in passing, 18th in total offense, and rushed for 120.0 ypg, up 40 ypg from 2015. The line was led by unanimous All-American Cody O'Connell, who became just the second unanimous All-American in WSU history and was an Outland Trophy finalist.

In 2015 the Cougar offense again led the nation in passing at 389.5 ypg, the second-highest mark in Pac-12 history. The offensive line also bolstered the WSU running game as the Cougars rushed for 80.0 ypg in 2015, more than double the output from 2014. Senior Joe Dahl was named a Second-Team All-American by USA Today and was a First-Team All-Pac-12 selection.

In 2014 the Cougar offensive line paved the way as WSU led the nation in passing at 477.7 yards per game, setting a Pac-12 record as well. The WSU offense also set 10 school single-season records, including total offense, first downs and yards per game. The offensive line was playing with three players seeing their first significant college action while junior offensive lineman Joe Dahl received All-Pac-12 honorable mention.

McGuire saw the offensive line make huge strides in 2013 from the season prior, doubling the yards-per-carry average, nearly doubling the total rushing yardage and nearly cutting the number of sacks allowed in half. The WSU offense finished with the fourth-best passing attack in the country, setting Pac-12 single-season records for completions, pass attempts and WSU single-season records for passing yards and total yards.

McGuire was the running backs coach and special teams coordinator at East Carolina in 2010 and 2011, working alongside offensive coordinator Lincoln Riley. The Pirates were in the 2010 Liberty Bowl.

Prior to East Carolina, McGuire enjoyed a total of nine bowl appearances as a player and staff member at his alma mater, Texas Tech, before his move to East Carolina.

He had spent four seasons on the Texas Tech staff, but the 2009 campaign however, marked his first heading the running backs corps - a position he lettered in for four years. His move to the backfield followed service as special teams coordinator in 2008, an offensive graduate assistant in 2007 and a video intern in 2006.

McGuire's three primary running backs, which included two freshmen, all averaged over 5.0 yards a carry in 2009. Junior Baron Batch was Texas Tech's offensive MVP after racking up a team-high 1,279 all-purpose yards - 884 on the ground, 395 receiving - and 15 touchdowns. He assumed the special teams coordinator role early in 2007 on an interim basis, after McNeill moved over to the defensive coordinator position before the fifth game.

The special teams units responded to McGuire immediately when he took over in 2007 as the punt team thwarted any attempt at return opportunities for the opposition. Tech opponents averaged a mere 6.7 yards per return and returned only 18 of 30 punts. The kickoff coverage unit was also second in the Big 12.

McGuire appeared in 45 games at the H-Back position for the Red Raiders during the course of four seasons from 2000 to 2004. A big, physical player, he was noted for his effectiveness as a blocker in Tech's offense, and also factored into the passing game, catching 32 passes for 320 yards and two touchdowns during his career.

McGuire earned a bachelor's degree in history from Texas Tech in 2004 before following with a master's in secondary education in 2007.

McGuire, a native of Crane, Texas, and his wife, Jeri, are the parents of two daughters - Jorja and Addison.

Brent Vernon begins his first season as the chief of staff for Head Coach Jake Dickert. Dickert and Vernon spent three seasons together (2017-19) when both worked on Craig Bohl's staff at Wyoming. Vernon's role at WSU includes the administrative operations of the team, including oversight of team budget, serving as liaison with the athletic administration as well as academic and Cougar medical staffs.

Vernon arrives in Pullman after spending the previous 13 seasons at Wyoming. Vernon was promoted to Associate A.D. for Football Operations in the summer of 2018. He was previously promoted to the position of Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations in the spring of 2017. He previously served in the roles of Executive Assistant to the Head Coach and Assistant Director of Football Operations in 2012. In 2011, Vernon served as Wyoming's Director of Recruiting, being promoted from his previous position as the Cowboys' offensive graduate assistant in 2009 and '10.

In 2021, Vernon was a member of Wyoming's victorious Famous Idaho Potato Bowl squad after Wyoming defeated Kent State, his 10th bowl game of his young career. He helped the Cowboys to the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl while helping in Wyoming's win in the 2017 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, appearance in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl, its appearance in the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl and its 2009 New Mexico Bowl Championship, as the Cowboys defeated Fresno State 35-28 in double overtime. While a student assistant at Missouri, the Tigers appeared in four consecutive bowl games from 2005-08.

While at Wyoming, Vernon coordinates a variety of administrative duties for Cowboy Football, including: planning team travel, monitoring the football budget, serving as a liaison with the academic counseling staff and helping coordinate team functions.

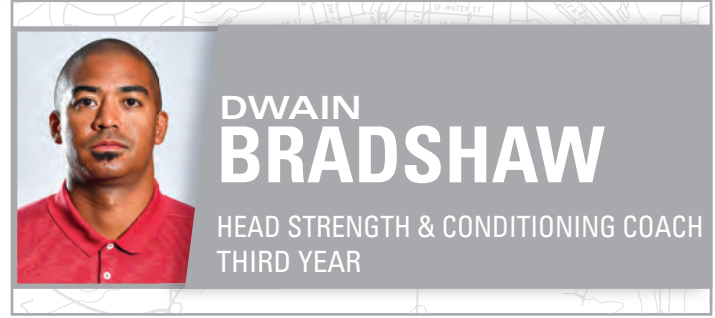

While serving as the Director of Recruiting in 2011, Vernon was responsible for coordinating all recruiting efforts for Cowboy Football, including: implementing Wyoming's recruiting plan for the year, scheduling recruiting travel, organizing recruiting weekends, assuring compliance with NCAA rules relative to recruiting and managing the recruiting budget.

Vernon was Wyoming's offensive graduate assistant in 2009 and 2010. He assisted with practice preparation, scout team coordination and a variety of other administrative and coaching duties for the Cowboy Offense. He also was involved in signaling plays from the sideline on game days.

Prior to Wyoming, Vernon was at the University of Missouri where he was a student assistant with the Mizzou Football program for five seasons from August 2004 to December 2008. At Missouri, he assisted the tight ends' coach, broke down practice and game film and prepared scouting reports. During that five-year span, Missouri enjoyed unprecedented success. The Tigers won the 2005 Independence Bowl over South Carolina, played Oregon State in the 2006 Sun Bowl, won the Cotton Bowl over Arkansas at the conclusion of the 2007 season and defeated Northwestern in the 2008 Alamo Bowl.

Vernon completed his bachelor of science degree in business administration, with an emphasis in management, at Missouri in December of 2008. Vernon achieved Dean's List honors all four years of college. He was also named the University of Missouri Athletics' Student Assistant of the Year in 2008.

He and his wife, Emily, were married in the summer of 2017. They have a son, Theo, and a daughter, XXXXX.

Dwain Bradshaw begins his third season as the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach after being hired prior to the 2020 season.

Bradshaw worked the past season as the Director of Football Athletic Performance for coach Rolovich at Hawai'i, helping UH to a 10-5 mark and Hawaii Bowl win over BYU. Bradshaw's performance system consists of movement, strength/power, and mental conditioning – all of which are collectively integrated for the enhancement of each position group and athlete individually.

Bradshaw went to Hawaii from Texas Tech University under now Arizona Cardinals head coach Kliff Kingsbury. He spent 2018 as the Director of Multi-directional Movement for the Red Raider Football team while also specializing in the training of defensive backs.

Before working at Texas Tech, Bradshaw was a strength & conditioning coach at the University of Southern California where he helped the Trojans win the 2017 Pac-12 Conference Championship and play in the Cotton Bowl.

Bradshaw began his professional career in 2014 as a sports performance intern at his alma mater, Arizona State University, where he also played safety and linebacker. Bradshaw later became a graduate assistant at Auburn University from 2015-17. His primary roles at Auburn were working with defensive backs and assisting in the indoctrination of incoming freshman Stage-0 athletes. Bradshaw also assisted the athletic trainers in the athlete reconditioning and return to play program. He was a key contributor in the return of second-round draft picks running back Kerryon Johnson and defensive back Jamel Dean.

Bradshaw holds certifications for CSCCA-SCCC (Strength & Conditioning College Coach), NSCA-CSCS (Certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist), USAW Lv1 (USA Weight Lifting), FMS Lv1 (Functional Movement Screen), MAT Jump Start (Muscle Activation Techniques).

Bradshaw received his bachelor's degree in exercise and wellness at Arizona State University and his master's degree in adult education & leadership at Auburn University. He is a native of Chino Hills, Calif.

Bradshaw and his wife, Bailee have one son, Duke and one daughter, Demi.

Tim Hicks begins his second season with the Cougars Football Staff as Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach.

Prior to joining the Washington State University staff, Hicks worked as a Performance Director with world renowned Sports Performance Company "EXOS." Working with over 100 athletes from the NFL, NBA, MLB, and college players prepping for NFL Combine, Hicks worked with numerous high-profile athletes such as; Super Bowl MVP Julian Edelman, Pro Bowler Richie Incognito, NBA Champion Pascal Siakam and US Open Champion Sloane Stephens. In his time working with athletes preparing for the NFL Combine, Hicks helped over 35 draft picks including 10 taken in the Top-10. Before joining EXOS, Hicks worked as an intern for the Tennessee Titans Baptist Sports Medicine.

Hicks holds certifications for NSCA-CSCS (Certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist), FMS Lv1 (Functional Movement Screen), USATF (United States Track & Field).

Hicks received his bachelor's degree in human performance sport science/athletic training and his master's degree in exercise science/sports administration from Tennessee State University.

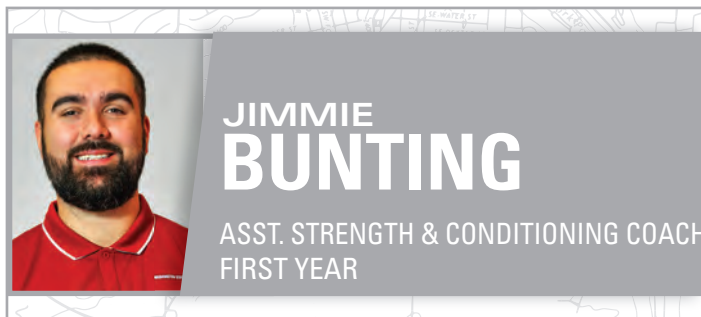

Jake Beckett begins his first season on the Washington State Strength & Conditioning Staff after joining the Cougars in the spring of 2022.

Beckett arrives in Pullman after spending the previous year in a similar capacity at Florida Atlantic. From 2019-20, he served as a graduate assistant at the University of South Carolina, where he was responsible for the day-to-day accountability of the players, Catapult analytics and assisted with daily weight room training sessions and on-field sprinting and conditioning sessions.

Beckett has spent time as a strength and conditioning coach at Tennessee Martin at Middle Tennessee State after beginning his coaching career as an intern at South Carolina.

Beckett played three seasons of Rugby at Coastal Carolina, earning 2015 NCAA Division II honorable mention honors. He received his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science in 2016 and his master's in family and consumer science from Tennessee Martin in 2020.

Jimmie Bunting begins his first season on the WSU staff, having spent the previous three years at McNeese State.

At McNeese State, Bunting was elevated to Director of Strength and Conditioning in 2021 after spending the previous two years as the Associate Director.

Bunting began his coaching career at Colorado State in 2015 then interned at two Big Ten schools: University of Wisconsin and Ohio State University in 2016, and 2017, respectively. He returned to Colorado State in 2017 as the Sr. Graduate Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach for football from 2017-2019. While there, he earned a Master's Degree in Adult Education and Training.

Bunting attended Concordia University in Nebraska where he graduated in 2014 and was a two-year football letterwinner. He earned a bachelors degree in fitness studies.

Bunting attended Johnson Brock High School and lettered in football, basketball, track, baseball, and power-lifting. He was All State Football, East/West Nebraska All Star Football Game participant, 2008 power-lifter of The Year, 3rd Place Nebraska State power-lifting 2006.

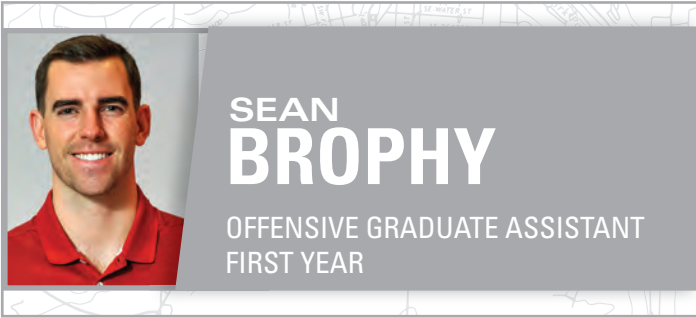

DeVante Wilson begins his first season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach on Jake Dickert's staff.

Wilson arrived in Pullman after completing a football sports performance internship at the University of Southern California. Prior to that, he served as an olympic sports performance intern at Cal Baptist University, where he earned a master's degree in kinesiology and exercise science.

Wilson also spent two years as a sports performance coach in southern California.

Wilson was a two-year starter at defensive end for California after transferring from Riverside Community College. At Cal, he recorded 69 tackles, 7.0 tackles for loss, 4.5 sacks and two forced fumbles in 25 total games. He graduated from Cal with a degree in American/United States Studies/Civilization.

Sean Brophy begins his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, serving as a graduate assistant on the offensive side of the ball.

Though his first year in Pullman, Brophy is no stranger to the Cougar coaching staff. During the 2021 season, his first in the coaching ranks, he served as an assistant wide receivers and quarterbacks coach at his alma mater, the University of Incarnate Word, under current WSU Offensive Coordinator Eric Morris. In 2021, the Cardinals posted a 10-3 record, reached the FCS Playoffs for the second time in four seasons, while assisting in the development of current Cougar quarterback Cameron Ward, he threw for 4,648 yards and 47 touchdowns on the season.

Brophy was a three-year quarterback at UIW after transferring from Glendale Community College prior to the 2017 season. At UIW, he played for Morris for his final two seasons, helping the Cardinals to a Southland Conference title in 2018. Brophy graduated with a bachelor's degree in English and a master's of business administration.

Brophy is a native of Phoenix, Ariz.

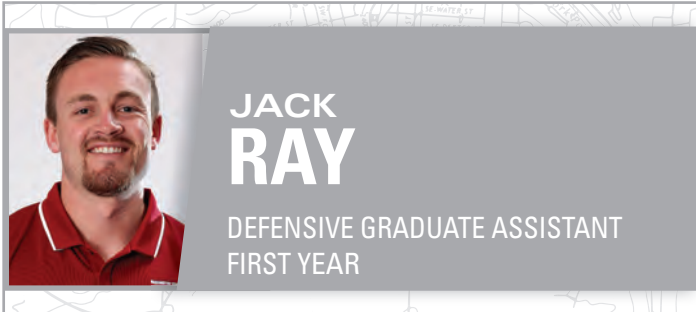

Luke Hyde begins his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, serving as an offensive graduate assistant.

Hyde arrived in Pullman having spent the past two seasons as a graduate assistant at the University of Idaho, working with the offensive line. During the 2021 season, the Vandals led the Big Sky Conference in rushing touchdowns with 28. Hyde also worked closely with fullback Logan Kendall, a two-time First-Team All-Big Sky selection and 2020 Phil Steele Third-Team All-American.

During his undergraduate years at Idaho, he was a three-year letterwinner on the Vandal football team, working as a tight end, fullback and long snapper while also playing special teams.

Hyde received his bachelor's from Idaho in secondary education, social studies and physical education, and is current working towards a master's of education, educational leadership at Idaho.

Jack Ray begins his first season on head coach Jake Dickert's staff, serving as a defensive graduate assistant.

Ray arrives in Pullman having spent the previous three seasons at the University of Nevada, working with the special teams units. He began in 2019 and spent all three seasons as the direct assistant to the special teams coordinator, working on film breakdown/scouting reports and practice and game evaluations. At the end of the 2021 season, Ray served as Nevada's interim special teams coordinator for the Quick Lane Bowl against Western Michigan.

Ray began his coaching career as a student assistant at his lama mater, Arkansas Pine Bluff, where he worked with special teams and defense.

Ryan was a two-year starter at long snapper during his playing days. He graduated in 2019 with a degree in accounting.

Max Silver begins his third season with the Washington State Football program working with the defensive line as a graduate assistant.

Silver joined WSU after spending three seasons on the defensive staff at Eastern New Mexico where he served as the linebackers and defensive line coach. Silver tutored a defensive line unit in 2019 that created a reputation for being one of the Lone Star Conference's most disruptive groups, led by freshman Mazin Richards, who totaled the most sacks in the conference with 12.5 for the year and was named a D2CCA Third Team All-Super Region Four selection at season's end. Richards paired with senior Jamar Claibourne, who earned Honorable Mention All-LSC honors, to consistently effect opposing offenses throughout the season. The defensive unit ranked fourth in the conference in both total defense (360.3 ypg) and sacks (26) in 2019.

Silver began his tenure on staff at Eastern New Mexico as a graduate assistant in charge of the linebacker core in 2018, providing direction for a pair of All-LSC selections in Noah Sweitzer and Brad Hardin. Sweitzer was named a Second Team All-LSC selection while Hardin was an Honorable Mention All-LSC pick on a defense that ranked third in the LSC in scoring defense (22.1 ppg) and led the league in opponent fourth down attempts (30.4 percent).

The Orange, Calif. native began his coaching career at Fullerton College in 2017, helping the program to a record of 13-0 and a CCCAA National Championship. Silver coached the linebackers for that season, developing a unit that featured current UCLA standout Caleb Johnson, who was named a JUCO All-American at season's end.

Silver's playing career was cut short due to injury, but saw the former First Team All-Conference linebacker at of El Modena High School compete for a season on special teams and defense at Trinity International University and for a season at East Los Angeles College as well. Silver earned his master's degree in physical education with an emphasis in sports administration from Eastern New Mexico in 2020 after earning his bachelor's of science degree from the University of Hawaii at Manoa in December of 2015.

Silver is engaged to his longtime girlfriend, Cassie McDevitt.

Jordan Davis begins his first year on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, serving as an offensive analyst.

Davis arrived in Pullman having spent the past four seasons at the University of Incarnate Word under Head Coach Eric Morris, the Cougars' current offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Davis joined the Cardinals staff in 2018 as the wide receivers coach in the spring of 2018. He was promoted to assistant head coach/wide receivers coach in the spring of 2020.

During the 2021 season, Davis coached wide receiver Taylor Grimes, who earned multiple All-American honors in 2021 and was named Southland Conference Newcomer of the Year after setting single-season records for receiving yards (1,145) and touchdown receptions (15). The prior season Davis mentored all-conference receiver Robert Ferrell, who led the team in catches (35), yards (474) and six touchdowns, the latter setting a school record in just six games due to the shortened season.

Prior to UIW, Davis was an offensive graduate assistant at Texas Tech University, where he worked closely with Morris, then the offensive coordinator for the Red Raiders, during the 2016 and 2017 seasons.

Prior to his time as a graduate assistant, Davis played for the Texas Tech for three years. Davis graduated from Texas Tech with a bachelor's degree in university studies in 2014 and a master's degree in interdisciplinary studies in 2017.

Justin Mesa begins his second season in Pullman and first under Head Coach Jake Dickert, serving in an offensive quality control role.

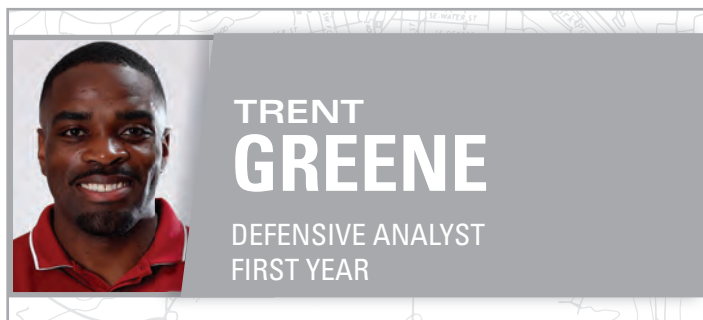

In his first season on the Cougar staff, Mesa served as the Cougars' Director of Transfer Recruiting after being hired in the summer of 2021.

Prior to Washington State, Mesa was the head coach for two seasons (2019, 2020) (played in Spring, 2021) at San Marino High School in California. Prior to SMHS, Mesa was the Director of Player Personnel at Wyoming for two seasons (2017-18), coached the wide receivers and field goal units at Dixie State University in 2016 and served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Loyola High School in Los Angeles, Calif., for three seasons (2013-15).

Mesa spent six seasons serving in a variety of administrative and coaching roles at the University of Southern California from 2007-12. He originally was involved as a recruiting and operations assistant at USC in 2007 and later assisted in coaching the Trojan wide receivers in 2008. The 2009 season saw Mesa being hired as a graduate assistant coach and was elevated to an assistant quarterback coaching position in 2010 before coaching the USC tight ends for two seasons (2011-12).

While at USC, Mesa was part of the Trojans' Rose Bowl Championship teams at the conclusion of the 2007 and 2008 seasons. He was also on the coaching staff when USC won the 2009 Emerald Bowl and earned a berth in the 2012 Sun Bowl.

Mesa completed his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from USC in 2007.

Trent Greene begins his first year on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, serving as a defensive analyst.

Greene spent the 2021 season in a defensive quality control role with the Nevada Wolfpack, where he worked under current Cougar defensive coordinator and linebackers coach Brian Ward. Greene specialized in defensive back play while with the Wolf Pack.

Prior to joining Nevada in 2021, Greene was the linebackers coach at Nolan Catholic High School in Fort Worth, Texas. He began his coaching career by spending three years (2007-19) as a graduate assistant at Syracuse University. There he worked with the linebackers, again, under Ward, who was the defensive coordinator for the Orange.

Greene was a team captain and two-time All-MAC selection at linebacker for Bowling Green. He played three seasons there and totaled 248 career tackles, including 127 in 2015 to help BGSU capture the Mid-American Conference (MAC) title in its second year under Dino Babers. The following season, Greene paced the Falcons with 111 stops and ranked fourth in the conference in tackles per game (9.3).

A 2016 nominee for the Burlsworth Trophy, awarded to the best player in college football who began his career as a walk-on, Greene earned his undergraduate degree from BGSU in December 2016. He is pursuing a master's degree in instructional design, development and evaluation at Syracuse.

Adam Breske begins his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, working in a defensive quality control role.

Breske arrived at Washington State having spent the previous four seasons (2018-21) at the University of Idaho where he served as inside linebackers coach. The past three seasons also saw Breske working as the team's special teams coordinator. While at Idaho, Breske coached alongside his father, Mike, who was Idaho's defensive coordinator, a similar role he held at Washington State from 2012-14.

In the fall of 2021, Breske mentored linebacker Tre Walker to first-team All-Big Sky honors. Led by first-team All-Big Sky selections Christian Elliss and Tre Walker, the Vandals led the Big Sky in rushing defense as Walker led the conference in tackles and five other Vandals earned All-Big Sky honors on defense.

The special teams unit was one of the best in the nation. Punter Cade Coffey earned Stats Perform FCS All-America Second Team honors after posting a net average of nearly 44 yards per punt.

Breske is a 17-year coaching veteran, including 14 years at the collegiate level. He spent the 2017 season at Sioux Falls coaching linebackers and special teams, his second stint with the school (2005-06). The 2006 season saw Breske coach the linebackers and special teams during the Cougars' NAIA National Championship run and perfect 14-0 season.

In 2016 he was the defensive line coach at Missouri Valley College. Breske was on staff at South Dakota from 2007-15, including a stint as the defensive coordinator. During his time at South Dakota, Breske worked with Dickert (2011), who was the school's special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach.

Breske's coaching career began at Central High School in his hometown of Greeley, Colo., while working toward his bachelor's degree in communication from Northern Colorado (2004).

He earned his master's degree in 2009 from South Dakota. Breske and his wife, Danielle, have a son, Dylan, and a daughter, Layla.

Dan Ferrigno is in his third season at Washington State and will serve in a special teams quality control role for the 2022 campaign. Ferrigno was originally hired prior to the 2020 season and worked as an offensive analyst and was named an offensive assistant Oct. 22, 2021.

Ferrigno (pronounced Fuh-REEN-yo) brings four decades of coaching experience with him after previous coaching stops at Cal Poly, San Jose State, Michigan, San Diego State, Pacific, San Francisco State, Western Michigan, not to mention stops at Pac-12 schools USC, California, Oregon State, and Oregon.

Ferrigno, who worked on the Michigan staff (2011-14) as the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach.

Under Ferrigno, the tight ends were a prominent part of the Michigan offense. In 2013, Devin Funchess earned Big Ten Kwalick-Clark Tight End of the Year honors and was named as one of eight semifinalists for the John Mackey Award, given annually to the most outstanding collegiate tight end. In 2012, Funchess earned Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-America honors. In 2012, punter Will Hagerup earned Eddleman-Fields Big Ten Punter of the Year honors.

As the wide receivers coach at California (2006-07), Ferrigno helped the Bears post a 10-3 record in 2006 en route to winning the Holiday Bowl and a No. 14 final ranking in the AP poll thanks in part to wide receiver DeSean Jackson's Pac-10-best nine touchdowns. Ferrigno was the tight ends coach at California (1996-98) where he coached Tony Gonzalez, a first-team all-Pac-10 selection and NFL All-Pro, Gonzalez was the 13th overall pick of the Kansas City Chiefs in the 1997 draft.

The former Riordan High School prep received his undergraduate degree in physical education in 1975 from San Francisco State, where he still holds the school's career records for receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns.

Ferrigno earned his bachelor's degree in physical education at San Francisco State in 1975 and his teaching credential from San Francisco State in 1978. The San Francisco native and his wife, Shawna have three daughters and three sons.

Justin Kramer begins his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, serving as the program's director of scouting.

Kramer arrived in Pullman after spending the past two seasons on the staff at Southeast Missouri State, where he coached tight ends. It marked the second stint at SEMO for Kramer, who was an assistant coach with the Redhawks from 2006-12 before moving on to coaching positions at Missouri and Missouri State.

He was at Missouri State for four years (2016-19) as the Bears offensive coordinator and offensive line coach, and worked with the tight ends and special teams during his time in Springfield.

Under Kramer's direction, MSU's special teams were some of the most consistent units in the Missouri Valley Football Conference. In particular, the Bears ranked among the Valley's top three units in kickoff return average (22.2), punt return average (13.0), punt average (41.0) and field goals made per game (1.09) in 2018.

Kramer initially left SEMO to join Gary Pinkel's staff at Missouri, where he worked with Dave Steckel in shaping one of the SEC's top defensive units. Steckel was later the head coach at Missouri State.

Kramer was a key defensive analyst for the Tigers and also served as the assistant director of recruiting during his tenure at Mizzou. In that role, he helped oversee scouting and assisted the staff with scripting and practice planning. Kramer helped coordinate Missouri's football camps, as well.

A native of Liberty, Missouri, Kramer was a four-year letterman at Southern Illinois from 2002-05. He was a standout offensive lineman who was part of three Saluki NCAA Playoff teams and three Missouri Valley Football Conference titles.

Rob Schlaeger begins his first season as the Washington State Football Director of Player Personnel on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff. Schlaeger spent the 2020 season in a similar role in Pullman.

Under Dickert, Schlaeger will oversee all of the Cougars' recruiting efforts, from identifying talent at the high school and collegiate levels, as well as managing the transfer portal.

Prior to WSU, Schlaeger spent the 2018 and 2019 seasons working with the defense at Minot State University (N.D.). Schlaeger worked as the MSU defensive front coordinator and defensive line coach. He worked the 2017 season as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Wyoming, where he worked under Dickert, who was the school's safeties coach. Schlaeger also previously coached at West Florida and Southwest Minnesota State.

Schlaeger earned his bachelor's degree in physical education and sport management from Southwest Minnesota State in 2015, and completed his master's degree in coaching of sport, also from Southwest Minnesota State, in 2016.

Stacey Ford begins his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff as the Cougars' director of recruiting.

Ford arrives in Pullman having spent the past three seasons as the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Warren High School in Los Angeles, Calif. He also served as the resident substitute teacher at the high school, performing instructional curriculum and classroom management for all subjects.

Previous coaching stops for Ford include working as a player personal scout intern during the summer of 2016 for the Oakland Raiders. There he was responsible for multiple player scouting reports, managed and updated departmental programs and databases, and assisted with life skills/education seminars and presentations. Later that fall, he served as linebacker coach at Cathedral High School.

Off the field, Ford has served as a behavior therapist for Autistic Learning and has released two rap albums under the name, King Stace: Energy and Trial & Error.

Ford received his degree in psychology and a minor in business administration in 2016 from Tuskegee University, where he was an outside linebacker on the football team.

Kaila Evenoff is in his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff as the director of on-campus recruiting, beginning her position in the spring of 2022.

Evenoff is no stranger to the Cougars as she joined Washington State in the Spring of 2015 as the Assistant Spirit Squad Coordinator/Head Dance Team Coach and in July of 2020 was named Director of Spirit Programs.

During her time with the Cougar spirit programs, Evenoff was been responsible for developing, organizing, and running all practices, games, clinics, and competition related events. This has resulted in the success of the WSU competitive squads seeing four consecutive years advancing into the finals of the UDA Jazz D1A Nationals Competition, and also the fourth placing in the top 10 overall. The Cougars have also recorded two consecutive top-three finishes at the UDA Gameday D1A Nationals Competition as well.

A 2010 graduate of WSU, she spent three season as a Spokane Shock Dancer from 2008-09 and 2012, three seasons in the NBA as a Denver Nuggets Dancer from 2010-11 and 2012-14 and one season in the NFL as a Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleader from 2014-15. She represented the Denver Nuggets Dancers at the 2014 NBA All-Star Game.

Evenoff started her collegiate career at UNLV and spent two years on the cheer team before transferring to WSU. At Washington State she joined the Crimson Girls where she was a member of the team from 2008-10. She graduated with a degree in apparel merchandising and design merchandising.

Evenoff was born in Seoul, Korea, and grew up in Spokane, Wash. She graduated from Mead High School in 2005, where she participated in gymnastics and track and field.

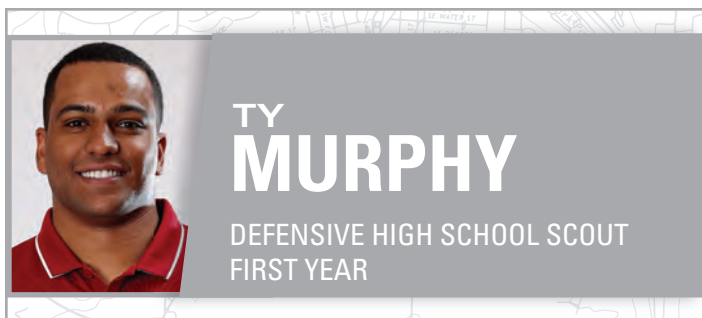

Evenoff and her husband, Anthony have one son, Makai.

Parker Cundiff is in his first year as transfer scout on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff after being named to the position in the spring of 2022. Cundiff will assist the recruiting and scouting unit with a primary focus on transfer players.

Prior to arriving in Pullman, Cundiff spent the previous seven seasons at Texas A&M Kingsville, where he began as the special teams assistant coach, and has since worked with tight ends, fullbacks, and ended his time as the recruiting coordinator and running backs coach.

The son of former (Texas A&M-Kingsville) Javelina head coach Richard Cundiff (2000-06), Cundiff graduated from Texas San Antonio in 2012 with a bachelor's degree in English with a minor in communications. While at UTSA, Cundiff was a member of the inaugural Roadrunner football team from 2010 to 2012 where he was a punter and placekicker.

Ty Murphy begins his first season on Head coach Jake Dickert's staff, serving as a defensive high school scout after being named to the position in the spring of 2022.

Murphy arrives in Pullman have spent the 2021 season as a football recruiting graduate assistant as West Virginia University, helping the Mountaineers to an appearance in the 2022 Guaranteed Rate Bowl against Minnesota.

Prior to West Virginia, Murphy spent one season at his alma mater, Dixie State University, where he served as a defensive quality control coach. Playing the 2020 season in the spring of 2021, Dixie State opened the season with a 26-14 upset of No. 22 Tarleton State and closed with a 60-0 victory over Fort Lewis.

Murphy played one season (2019) at Dixie State, collecting five tackles, in nine games as a defensive back. He arrived at Dixie State after two seasons at Snow College, where he helped the Badgers to an 18-4 record in two seasons and was a NJCAA Academic All-American in 2017.

Rolando Surita begins his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, serving as an offensive high school scout.

Surita began his coaching career in 2018 at Incarnate Word University as a graduate assistant under head coach Eric Morris, who currently serves as the Cougar's offensive coordinator. While at UIW, Surita also worked as an operations and player personnel assisant during his time before joining the Cougar staff.

Surita received his bachelor's degree in multidisciplinary studies from Texas-San Antonio and his master's in sport management for Incarnate Word.

Bailey White begins her second season on the Cougars' creative staff and first as the Director of Creative Branding. White joined the program in July, 2021 as the Director of Creative Video and was elevated to her current role in the spring of 2022.

As the director of creative branding, White oversees all aspects of Cougar Football's creative and social strategy, including video, graphics and recruiting material.

White worked the 2020 season as a Creative Video Producer for the Air Force Academy Athletic Corporation where she directed and edited the intro-video for five varsity sports, led video creation for all ticketed sports and developed and executed videos for Air Force Football. White also helped lead the video coverage for the 2020 NHL Stadium Series hosted at Falcon Stadium.

White worked two seasons (2018-19) as a video producer at Middle Tennessee State where she created content for all varsity sports and served as the lead video editor for men's basketball.

White played lacrosse at Radford University where she earned her bachelor's degree in communications in 2018.

Bryce Oldroyd joined Washington State Athletics in 2016 as a student assistant and begins his third season as the Director of Football Digital Media for the Cougars.

Oldroyd has been a member of the WSU Football program for more than six years, beginning as a graphic designer for the team. Oldroyd began working with Washington State initially as a media technical assistant for WSU Global Campus, and two years later he moved on to working as a camera operator for WSU Athletics where he operated sideline cameras for the football video board.

He is currently working on completing his bachelor's degree in journalism and media production and sport management from Washington State University.

Following five years in a Cougar Football uniform, Dallas Hobbs has transitioned to the football staff entering the 2022 season as a digital media specialist.

Arriving in Pullman prior to the 2017 season as a defensive tackle, Hobbs earned four varsity letters in the Crimson and Gray, amassing 29 total tackles, with eight tackles-for-loss, three sacks and a forced fumble. Hobbs was a part of 34 victories in a WSU uniform, including trips to four bowl games, highlighted by a 2018 Alamo Bowl victory as part of an 11-2 season.

Hobbs was a true student-athlete, receiving the 2022 Beulah M. Blankenship Outstanding Student-Athlete Award, recognizing contributions to the highest values of athletic expression by sportsmanship, dedication and positive regard for others. He also received the WSU Big Ten Senior Award, given to ten of the top seniors in each graduating class. Hobbs was one of two recipients for athletics.

As a student-athlete, Hobbs was actively involved in numerous groups off the field, including being a representative on the Pac-12 Student-Athlete Leadership Team (SALT) and a graphic designer for the Cougar Athletic Fund (CAF). He was also on the student-athlete advisory committee (SAAC) and leading WSU's Black Student-Athlete Association (BSAA) as a member of the executive board.

Hobbs earned degrees in digital technology and culture as well as fine arts. He is currently working towards his MBA from WSU.

Ryan Robinson begins his third season on the Cougar football staff and second in the role of Director of Football Operations.

In his role, Robinson helps coordinate all aspects of the team's operations, including team travel, preseason camp, day-to-day logistics, as well as recruiting.

Robinson spent the 2020 season as the Cougars' assistant director of player personnel.

Prior to arriving in Pullman, Robinson spent the previous four years as the director of football operations at New Mexico State after a coaching stint at Lubbock-Cooper High School.

Robinson played collegiately at Middle Tennessee State.

Ashley Watkins begins her second season at Washington State as the Assistant Director of Football Operations.

Watkins joined the football program after working the 2020 school year as an administrative assistant in the Washington State Athletics Compliance office. Watkins also worked in a number of different roles with Washington State Intramurals, the Pac-12 Network and Washington State Athletics Marketing department 2017-18.

Watkins earned her bachelor's degree in sport management with business minor from Washington State in 2021.

Olivia Vea is in her third season as the video coordinator for Cougar football and first on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff. Vea was named to the position in February 2020.

Vea coordinates all videotaping for WSU Football, focusing on gameday, practices and workouts. She also produces highlight packages, specialty projects for the football staff as well as handles all video needs throughout the recruiting process.

Vea arrived at WSU after spending the previous 10 years at the University of Hawai'i, where she worked on Coach Rolovich's staff from 2016-19. In 2019, she was named the Collegiate Sports Video Association's Mountain West Video Coordinator of the Year.

She began at Hawai'i as a student manager in 2010 under head coach Greg McMackin and after two years, assumed a graduate assistant position on Norm Chow's staff. In 2015, she was promoted to video specialist, where she produced highlight videos and managed practices and game-day production and took over as video coordinator the following season.

She graduated from UH-Manoa in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in creative media. She is a 2007 graduate of Kaimuki High School in O'ahu, where she got her start in athletics and media production.

T.J. Barr begins his first season as the assistant video coordinator for Cougar football.

Barr helps coordinate all videotaping for WSU Football, focusing on gameday, practices and workouts and assists with producing highlight packages, specialty projects for the football staff and recruiting.

Barr worked the previous two seasons as a video film assistant for the Cougars and has also worked with a number of Washington State events including the Cougs Career in Sports Meet and Fun Run Fundraiser.

Barr earned his bachelor's degree in sport management with a minor in business administration from Washington State in 2021.

2021 GAME RECAPS

UTAH STATE AT WASHINGTON STATE

Sept. 4, 2021 • Gesa Field • Att.: 24,944 • TV: Pac-12 Networks

PULLMAN, Wash. – Logan Bonner threw a 7-yard touchdown pass to Devin Thompson with 11 seconds left to lift Utah State to a 26-23 victory over Washington State on Saturday night. Utah State (1-0) got the ball back on its own 22 with 3:02 left and Bonner drove them to the winning score in Blake Anderson's first game as the Aggies' coach. Bonner completed a pass to Derek Wright for a two-point conversion and the final score. Max Borghi ran for 86 yards and a touchdown for Washington State (0-1) of the Pac-12, which finished 1-3 last year. But with the game on the line, he turned to Bonner, who followed the coach to Utah State from Arkansas State. "He has been in this situation a lot more than Peasley has," Anderson said. Washington State coach Nick Rolovich said his team settled for too many field goals and failed to convert on third downs. "I think we could've put that thing away and that's on me," Rolovich said. "We are going to get going and be ready for next week. We lost, but everyone is keeping their heads up," Washington State quarterback Jayden de Laura said. Peasley connected with Thompson on a 45-yard pass to the WSU 1 in the first quarter. But the drive was stalled by three false start penalties and the Aggies had to settle for a 23-yard field goal by Connor Coles and a 3-0 lead. Dean Janikowski's 35-yard field goal for Washington State tied the game early in the second quarter. Utah State's Patrick Joyner sacked Guarantano in the end zone for a safety and a 5-3 lead. Janikowski's 31-yard field goal attempt bounced off the left upright for WSU late in the second quarter. Derrick Langford picked off a Bonner pass late in the first half and returned it 36 yards to the Utah State 28. But three straight passes by de Laura were incomplete from the Utah State 9 and the Cougars had to settle for Janikowski's 26-yard field goal and a 6-5 lead at halftime. Coles kicked a 39-yard field goal on the opening drive of the second half to give Utah State an 8-6 lead. Borghi scored the first touchdown of the game on a 64-yard run down the left sideline with 10:47 left in the third, giving the Cougars a 13-8 lead. Coles replied with a 28-yard field goal for Utah State. Donovan Ollie caught a 12-yard touchdown pass from de Laura with 4:01 left in the third for a 20-11 Washington State lead. Janikowski added a 27-yard field goal early in the fourth for the Cougars. Calvin Tyler Jr. plowed over from the 2-yard line for Utah State's first touchdown with 5:16 left in the game, cutting Washington State's lead to 23-18. The Cougars went three-and-out and had to punt, setting up Utah State's winning touchdown drive. Both teams came in unsettled at the quarterback position, and each rotated two quarterbacks during the game. Tennessee graduate transfer Jarrett Guarantano rotated with last year's starter Jayden de Laura for WSU. Anderson also had a quarterback battle and rotated Bonner, who followed the coach from Arkansas State, and Peasley. The last time Utah State defeated a Pac-12 team was in 2012 at home against Utah. Utah State's last road win over a power conference team was against Kansas State in 1971. THE TAKEAWAY Utah State finished strong, scoring 15 points in the fourth quarter to beat a Pac-12 team on the road. Washington State sputtered on offense and couldn't stop the Aggies with the game on the line. Both teams need to settle on a starting quarterback. YARDS MATTER Utah State generated 439 yards of total offense, to 355 for Washington State. BORGI WATCH Max Borghi's 84-yard touchdown run was the longest run of his career, and he upped his career rushing TD total to 21, 5th-most in WSU history.

PORTLAND STATE AT WASHINGTON STATE

Sept. 11, 2021 • Gesa Field • Att.: 22,651 • TV: Pac-12 Networks

PULLMAN, Wash. – Jayden de Laura threw three touchdown passes and ran for another score as Washington State beat Portland State 44-24 on Saturday. Deon McIntosh rushed for 64 yards and a touchdown and Max Borghi added 59 yards and a touchdown for Washington State (1-1), which rebounded from a last-minute loss to Utah State at home last weekend. Travell Harris had 188 all-purpose yards and caught two touchdown passes. Davis Alexander threw for 318 yards and two touchdowns for Portland State (0-2), an FCS program which upset Washington State in Pullman the last time the teams played in 2015. His favorite target was Beau Kelly, who caught 10 passes for 152 yards. Portland State, a member of the Big Sky Conference, fell to 4-42 all-time against FBS teams. Washington State blew the game open in the second quarter when it switched to a hurry-up offense and scored on four straight possessions to take a 30-10 lead at halftime. "Jayden plays good at that pace," WSU coach Nick Rolovich said. "It was very effective today." "This was in our plans," Rolovich said. Also effective was the WSU running game, which gained 159 yards on an average of 4.8 yards per carry. Rolovich said he was dissatisfied with how often his quarterbacks checked out of running plays during the loss to Utah State. "We threw it too much when it should have been handed off," Rolovich said of the Utah State game. As a result, "we took out some pre-snap decisions for the quarterback." De Laura, a sophomore who started all four games last season, completed 21 of 29 passes for 303 yards and was intercepted once. Portland State coach Bruce Barnum said Washington State was a fast team and only was penalized once for 10 yards. "They got snake bit last week and they responded. Good for them," Barnum said. "To beat a team like Washington State, we need to play damn near perfect, and we didn't do that today," Barnum said. "We just couldn't run, and that puts us in a tough spot, especially because they've got a back end like we won't see in our conference," Barnum said. "I could have run my quarterback, but I wasn't gonna let my quarterback get banged up, because if we can win from here on out we can still make a run at the Big Sky playoffs." Washington State struck first when de Laura fired a 22-yard touchdown pass to a leaping Calvin Jackson Jr. in the end zone early in the first quarter. Washington State drove to the Portland State 6 on its next possession, but de Laura was intercepted in the end zone by Anthony Adams to end the drive. Alexander led Portland State on a 79-yard drive early in the second quarter, capped by his 1-yard rushing play, to tie the score at 7-7. Harris returned the ensuing kickoff 50 yards to the Portland State 46. Three plays later de Laura ran in from the 10-yard line as Washington State took a 14-7 lead. After a Portland State punt, de Laura directed a 75-yard drive that ended with McIntosh's 16-yard run up the middle that gave Washington State a 21-7 lead. Cody Williams replied with a 46-yard field goal for Portland State, but de Laura then marched the Cougars down the field in six quick plays. His 19-yard touchdown pass to Harris gave WSU a 27-10 lead. Dean Janikowski kicked a 23-yard field goal as time expired to give WSU a 30-10 halftime lead. Borghi scored on a 1-yard run late in the third for a 37-10 WSU lead. Alexander fired a 39-yard touchdown pass to Kelly in the fourth quarter. MAX RUNS Max Borghi has now scored 31 total touchdowns in his WSU career, fourth most in school history. His 22 rushing touchdowns are tied for fourth-most. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State's offense showed marked improvement after a lackluster performance in the loss to Utah State last weekend. De Laura, who started this game after Jarrett Guarantano was injured last week, looked sharp. Portland State's offense did not repeat the success it had in last weekend's 49-35 loss at Hawaii.

USC AT WASHINGTON STATE

Sept. 18, 2021 • Gesa Field • Att.: 24,714 • TV: FOX

PULLMAN, Wash. — Freshman quarterback Jaxson Dart came off the bench to throw four touchdown passes as Southern California rebounded from last weekend's tough loss to Stanford, and the subsequent firing of coach Clay Helton, with a 45-14 victory over Washington State on Saturday. Dart replaced an injured Kedon Slovis on the second series of the game. He completed 30 of 46 passes for 391 yards, with two interceptions, as Southern California (2-1, 1-1 Pac-12) won in its first game under interim coach Donte Williams, the first Black head coach in program history. Drake London caught 13 passes for 170 yards for the Trojans. Jayden de Laura threw for 117 yards and a pair of touchdowns for Washington State (1-2, 0-1), which jumped to a 14-0 lead and then watched the Trojans score 45 unanswered points. Last Saturday's 42-28 loss at home to Stanford was the final straw for Helton, who was let go two days later. Williams, who was USC's cornerbacks coach, will lead the team for the remainder of the season. Washington State put together an 89-yard drive on its first possession, and de Laura threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to Travell Harris for a 7-0 lead. Slovis was shaken up when he was sacked by Andrew Edson during the Trojans' opening possession, and replaced by Dart on the next series. Dart was intercepted by Daniel Isom and the Cougars eventually had first and goal at the 1. But they failed to score on three runs and a pass play to turn the ball over on downs. After a USC punt, the Cougars marched down the field again, and de Laura found Harris with a 7-yard touchdown pass for a 14-0 lead. Late in the first half, the Trojans drove 93 yards, with Dart hitting Gary Bryant Jr. on fourth down for a 38-yard touchdown pass. That cut Washington State's lead to 14-7 at halftime. Washington State's Harris fumbled while returning the opening kickoff of the second half, and the Trojans recovered. Dart fired a 5-yard scoring pass to London to tie the score at 14-14. Victor Gabalis replaced an injured de Laura at quarterback for Washington State at the beginning of the second half. Dart threw a 3-yard scoring pass to Bryant to lift the Trojans to their first lead at 21-14 with 6:16 left in the third. Armani Marsh intercepted a Dart pass deep in WSU territory, giving the Cougars the ball at their own 5. Two plays later Gabalis fumbled when he was hit by Drake Jackson and Tuli Tuipulotu recovered in the end zone for a touchdown that lifted USC to a 28-14 lead. De Laura returned at quarterback for the Cougars on the next series and was immediately intercepted. Southern California holds a 61-10-4 advantage in the series. Southern Cal's trip to Pullman included some drama. After landing in nearby Lewiston, Idaho, on Friday, the Trojans' team plane tilted backward on the tarmac, lifting the plane's nose into the air after the grounds crew did not put the plane's tail stand in place. Only coaches and staff members were still on the plane, according to a USC statement. The players, who sit in the front half, had exited and no one was injured, the statement said. The grounds crew quickly leveled the plane. THE TAKEAWAY The firing of Helton seems to have lit a fire under the Trojans, who pounded Washington State behind the throwing of true freshman quarterback Jaxson Dart. Washington State made numerous mistakes and was outscored 28-0 in the third quarter. The Cougars played their first three games at home and have only a 1-2 record to show for it.

WASHINGTON STATE AT UTAH

Sept. 25, 2021 • Rice-Eccles Stadium • Att.: 51,4830 • TV: Pac-12 Networks

SALT LAKE CITY — Utah running back T.J. Pledger rushed for 177 yards and the go-ahead touchdown as Utah came from behind to beat Washington State 24-13 on Saturday afternoon in the Utes' Pac-12 opener. Pledger, a transfer from Oklahoma who only had 11 yards coming into the game, ran 20 yards for a touchdown with 4:53 to play. Then Clark Phillips took an interception 54 yards for a score to clinch it with 2:19 remaining. The Cougars (1-3, 0-2 Pac-12) forced seven fumbles, recovering three, with at least two others saved by replay. The last one came with 10:18 to play when Daniel Isom hit Chris Curry just before he crossed the goal line and Travion Brown recovered in the end zone. Jarrett Guarantano went 25-of-36 passing for 248 yards but struggled to move the Cougars offense in the second half. But the Utes (2-2, 1-0) shook off their fumble fingers and made all the big plays in the fourth quarter. Before the Utah offense got moving, the defense kept the Utes in the game with eight sacks and three interceptions. Devin Lloyd, who also had three tackles for loss, jumped a bubble screen and intercepted Guarantano's pass after tipping it. But backup QB Ja'Quinden Jackson fumbled two plays later and Jaylon Watson recovered for the Cougars on their 8-yard line. On the first play of the second half, Ron Stone Jr. knocked the ball from Utah's Micah Bernard and Christian Mejia recovered. Two plays later, Guarantano connected with De'Zhaun Stribling for a 26-yard TD and a 13-7 lead. After back-to-back losses, former Utah QB starter Charlie Brewer was told he'd been demoted and he left the program on Monday. Cameron Rising, who had 137 yards passing, got his first start since last season's opener against Southern Cal when he injured his shoulder in the first quarter. Though he finished strong to force triple-overtime last week at San Diego State, the Utes again struggled to move the ball through the air with just 26 yards passing at halftime. For the first time this season, the Utes brought extra pass rushers but that left the middle of the field open for WSU. Adjustments in the second half and a stronger rush quashed any chance of a Cougar comeback. Utah's lone scoring drive of the first half consisted of all rushing plays - highlighted by Rising's 31-yard scamper and capped by Jackson's 2-yard TD run. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: The Cougars dominated time of possession but only gained 106 yards in the second half. Max Borghi had 42 yards rushing before leaving in the second quarter with a left arm injury and the WSU ground attack struggled the rest of the way while Guarantano was under constant pressure. Utah: The Ute offense still doesn't look like a well-oiled machine but Utah rolled to 248 yards in the second half and was bolstered by another stout defensive performance. Britain Covey broke the school career punt-return yardage record and now has 902 yards.

WASHINGTON STATE AT CALIFORNIA

Oct. 2, 2021 • California Memorial Stadium • Att.: 40,286 • TV: Pac-12 Networks

BERKELEY, Calif. – Jayden de Laura passed for three touchdowns, two to Calvin Jackson Jr. who made a spectacular one-handed grab near the corner of the end zone, and Washington State beat California 21-6 on Saturday. Playing for the first time since suffering a leg injury against Southern California two weeks ago, de Laura matched his career best of 25 completions on 41 attempts for 219 yards with two interceptions to help the Cougars (2-3, 1-2 Pac-12) to their first win at Memorial Stadium since 2013. “It felt fine to go out there,” de Laura said. “I knew I had to bring some energy and do my part. I just gave the receivers and the running backs the ball and let them make plays.” Jackson finished with six catches for 53 yards. De’Zhaun Stribling added an 8-yard score and Washington State’s defense had five sacks and held the Golden Bears (1-4, 0-2) to 273 yards of offense. Cal quarterback Chase Garbers failed to throw a touchdown pass for the first time this season and was limited to 152 yards passing, 44 of them coming on one play for the Golden Bears (1-4, 0-2). “We didn’t really do much of anything all that well. That’s on me,” Cal coach Justin Wilcox said. “My job is to prepare our team to be successful and I failed.” It was the first meeting between the two teams since 2019. Last year’s game was canceled two hours before kickoff due to COVID-19 protocol issues within Cal’s program. Jackson scored on a 22-yard catch in the first quarter before his jaw-dropping catch in the second quarter helped the Cougars go up 14-6. Jackson jumped and snagged the ball with his right hand then - with his body twisting - managed to tap his right foot in the end zone before going out. The play was initially ruled incomplete before being overturned by replay. “When I saw the ball in the sky I said there’s no way I can get two hands on it,” Jackson said. “Once I got one hand on it my next thing was getting my foot down. The reaction was crazy. I came to the sideline and I got beat up the whole way to the bench.” It came not long after the Cougars appeared to stall out earlier in the drive. Cal’s Nick Alfin blocked Nick Haberer’s punt but Washington State’s Ron Stone Jr. scooped up the loose ball and scampered 12 yards for a first down. “The key for us was just to get a win,” said Washington State coach Nick Rolovich, who raved about Jackson’s catch after being shown the video during his postgame press conference. “I’m sure it’s going to be on ESPN. It better be Top 10. That’s as good of a catch as you’re going to see.” Cal’s lone score came in the first quarter on an 11-yard run by Christopher Brooks, who bulled through a pair of defenders into the end zone. The Golden Bears got in the red zone again early in the fourth quarter but turned the ball over on downs. “These next two weeks we’re really going to find out who we are as a team, who we are as people,” Garbers said. “They had our number, they did a great job and they just outplayed us. That happens.” THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: De Laura showed signs of rust early but used the short passing game to get comfortable. Running back Deon McIntosh provided a spark for the ground game, too. The Cougars defense, though, repeatedly made stops in the running game and never let Garbers get comfortable in the pocket - a small step forward for Rolovich’s team. California: The Bears played fairly well defensively but the offense couldn’t find a consistent rhythm. Garbers overthrew a few open receivers and spent much of his afternoon scrambling away from pressure. The good news is that Cal will get a few extra days to prepare for No. 3 Oregon. At this point the Bears need it.

OREGON STATE AT WASHINGTON STATE

Oct. 9, 2021 • Gesa Field • Att.: 24,157 • TV: Pac-12 Networks

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Jayden de Laura threw for 399 yards and three touchdowns as Washington State beat Oregon State 31-24 on Saturday. Travell Harris caught eight passes for 147 yards for the Cougars (3-3, 2-2 Pac-12), who beat Oregon State for the eighth consecutive time. B.J. Baylor rushed for 145 yards and Deshaun Fenwick added 127 yards and a pair of touchdowns for Oregon State (4-2, 2-1 Pac-12), which saw its four-game winning streak broken. De Laura completed 32 of 46 passes and was intercepted once. The Washington State defense also forced Oregon State to turn the ball over on downs during its last possession of the game. “He’s grown the trust of everyone in this program,” Washington State coach Nick Rolovich said of de Laura. “He makes everything around him better.” “I thought he played tremendous,” Rolovich added. Washington State depended on its pass attack in the second half, after trailing 10-3 at halftime. “We needed more out of our pass game because the numbers were on our side,” Rolovich said. “We did a really nice job on the second half on third down conversions.” The Cougars iced the game with touchdowns on four straight possessions in the second half, which Rolovich said will be a confidence boost for a team that has had trouble scoring this season. “That’s the fruits of the labor for the work they put in,” Rolovich said of the scoring burst. “We’re getting better.” Oregon State coach Jonathan Smith said he told his players the loss was a team effort. “I told the team I think all of us, (offense, defense, special teams) contributed to this loss, but I think what sticks out to me is the fake punt call, you know to start the second half,” Smith said. “We just anticipated a different look, thought it would be an awesome chance because our punter’s pretty good, but I’d take that one back.” Oregon State got just 158 passing yards. “We gotta find a better balance than we’ve got, just a consistency to be a true threat throwing it and being explosive,” Smith said. Fenwick said the team will bounce back. “We got good guys, got good players, got good coaches, we’ll be fine,” he said. “They just got us today. They made one more play today.” “We were in the game the whole time, and I feel like we’ve got the best team in the Pac,” Fenwick said. Jack Colletto ran up the middle for two yards and an Oregon State touchdown in the opening seconds of the second quarter. Washington State replied with Dean Janikowski’s 30-yard field goal. Everett Hayes kicked a 39-yard field goal to lift Oregon State to a 10-3 lead late in the second quarter. The Cougars drove to the Oregon State 7 on their next possession, but had to turn the ball over on downs. Oregon State quarterback Chance Nolan was intercepted by George Hicks III, giving the Cougars the ball at the Oregon State 28 with less than a minute remaining in the second quarter. The Cougars drove down to the 4, but Omar Speights intercepted de Laura’s pass and OSU led 10-3 at halftime. Oregon State took the second half kickoff and their drive stalled at the 50. They tried a fake punt but punter Luke Loecher’s long pass fell incomplete. The Cougars took over and Max Borghi’s 3-yard touchdown tied the game at 10-10. It was the first of four straight touchdown drives for Washington State. Oregon State drove down the field to the red zone, but Nolan’s pass was batted around and finally intercepted by Brennan Jackson at the Washington State 5. De Laura fired a pass at midfield to Joey Hobert, who made a great broken field run to complete a 55-yard touchdown and lift Washington State to a 17-10 lead late in the third. Oregon State struck back immediately, with Baylor ripping off a 50-yard run to the WSU 15, and Fenwick covering the remaining yards on the next play for a touchdown to tie the game at 17-17. The Cougars came right back, with de Laura connecting with Harris on a 58-yard completion to the Oregon State 14, and de Laura hitting Lincoln Victor on the next play for a touchdown that put the Cougars ahead 24-17. Fenwick tied the game at 24-24 with an 11-yard run. De Laura threw a 1-yard touchdown pass to Deon McIntosh for a 31-24 WSU lead, and the winning points, with 5:25 left. Oregon State drove down the field, but had to turn the ball over on downs at the Washington State 5 with 33 seconds left. VACCINATION CONTROVERSY Washington State coach Nick Rolovich confirmed that he has requested a religious exemption from the state to avoid being vaccinated against COVID-19. The news was first reported in USA Today. “I’ll confirm that,” Rolovich said at the postgame press conference. Rolovich said the controversy over his refusal to get a vaccine has been an “incredible stress.” Washington Gov. Jay Inslee has set an Oct. 18 deadline for state employees such as Rolovich to get vaccinated or risk losing their job. THE TAKEAWAY Oregon State was shooting for its first five-game winning streak since 2013, but was held 12 points below its Pac-12 leading average of 36 points per game. The Beavers totaled 309 rushing yards. Washington State, which leads the series 56-47-3, scored its highest point total against an FBS opponent this season.

STANFORD AT WASHINGTON STATE

Oct. 16, 2021 • Gesa Field • Att.: 26,171 • TV: ESPNU

PULLMAN, Wash. — Max Borghi scored on a 2-yard run with 1:30 left in the game as Washington State came back to beat Stanford 34-31 on Saturday in what was possibly the last game for WSU coach Nick Rolovich because of his refusal to get a COVID-19 vaccination. The state of Washington has set a deadline of Monday for all public employees - including the Cougars' coach - to be vaccinated against the coronavirus. Rolovich has applied for a religious exemption and his future with the team hangs on the answer. Rolovich, who is the highest paid state employee at more than $3 million per year, has refused to be vaccinated for unspecified reasons, in defiance of Washington Gov. Jay Inslee's mandate. He is the only unvaccinated coach in the Pac-12. "I'm going to come to work tomorrow and get ready for BYU," Rolovich said after the game. "This is not in my hands." Borghi's winning score was set up by a 41-yard pass reception by Calvin Jackson Jr. Borghi finished with 89 yards rushing and two touchdowns. "It's good to get Max involved," Rolovich said. "I'm proud of him." Quarterback Jayden de Laura threw for 289 yards and three touchdowns for Washington State (4-3, 3-2 Pac-12), which won its third straight game and holds a five-game winning streak against Stanford. "He was really mistake-free," Rolovich said of his sophomore quarterback. Austin Jones and Benjamin Yurosek caught touchdown passes for Stanford (3-4, 2-3) and Joshua Karty kicked three field goals. Quarterback Tanner McKee fired a 45-yard touchdown pass to Yurosek on Stanford's first possession. Karty added a pair of field goals as Stanford jumped to a 13-0 first-quarter lead. The Cougars came to life in the second quarter as de Laura threw touchdown passes of 32 yards to Travell Harris, 31 yards to Jackson and 10 yards to DeZhaun Stribling for a 20-13 lead. Borghi powered over from the 2 late in the third quarter to lift WSU to a 27-16 lead. But the Cardinal replied with a 74-yard drive. McKee pushed into the end zone from the 1 early in the fourth, then ran in the two-point conversion to cut Washington State's lead to 27-24. After a Washington State punt, Stanford drove 85 yards and took a 31-27 lead on McKee's 8-yard scoring pass to Jones with 7:32 left in the game. Washington State got the ball back on its 30 with 3:26 left. De Laura marched them down the field and Borghi scored the winning points with 1:30 left. "Our guys showed great resilience in the second half," Stanford coach David Shaw said. "We played so well in the second half on defense, but we gave up explosive plays, and we gave up the opportunity to win the game." Running back Austin Jones said Stanford cannot dwell on the loss. "We gotta move forward, continue to push ourselves, and get back healthy. I know we've got the pieces we need to win games," Jones said. ROLOVICH-VACCINE Rolovich said he does not know what will happen next week, but he has gotten used to the uncertainty after months of speculation about his future. He said he is waiting for a message from Athletic Director Pat Chun regarding his future. "I believe this is gonna work out in the right way," Rolovich said, adding that meant him remaining as coach of the Cougars. "I got faith in it." THE TAKEAWAY Stanford: After playing four of their first seven games on the road, the Cardinal play four of the next five at home. The Cardinal seemed to have control when they scored the first 15 points of the fourth quarter, but could not hold the lead. Washington State: The Cougars are playing the best football of Rolovich's two-year tenure.

BYU AT WASHINGTON STATE

Oct. 23, 2021 • Gesa Field • Att.: 22,541 • TV: Fox Sports 1

PULLMAN, Wash. — Tyler Allgeier ran for 191 yards and two touchdowns and BYU beat Washington State 21-19 on Saturday in Washington State's first game since head coach Nick Rolovich was fired for refusing to get a COVID-19 vaccination. Rolovich and four assistants were fired Monday for not complying with the governor's mandate that all state employees be vaccinated against the coronavirus. Rolovich had requested a religious exemption that was denied Monday, the state's vaccination deadline. He was replaced for the remainder of the season by Jake Dickert, the Cougars' defensive coordinator who was elevated to acting head coach. Max Borghi scored three touchdowns for Washington State (4-4), which saw its three-game winning streak end. Jaren Hall threw for 143 yards for BYU (6-2), which fell out of the Top 25 this week after losing two straight games. Borghi ran 11 yards up the middle for a Washington State touchdown on their first possession, capping a 75-yard drive. Lopini Katoa replied with a 3-yard touchdown run, also capping a 75-yard drive, for BYU to tie it at 7. But the rest of the first half was scoreless. BYU missed a field goal and also turned the ball over on downs while in WSU territory in the first half. Washington State quarterback Jayden de Laura, who leads the Pac-12 with 15 touchdown passes, was intercepted while throwing into the end zone to kill one first half drive. BYU took the opening kickoff of the second half 75 yards in 11 plays. Allgeier scored on a 4-yard run for a 14-7 lead. Washington State replied immediately, with Borghi scoring on a 1-yard run. But a conversion pass attempt failed and WSU trailed 14-13. BYU got the ball on its 19 and marched down the field in 11 plays, with Allgeier scoring from the 2-yard line for a 21-13 lead with 14:57 left. Borghi scored his third touchdown on a 1-yard run up the middle with 4:14 left. But a conversion pass by Lincoln Victor failed and Washington State trailed 21-19. BYU ran out the clock. THE TAKEAWAY BYU is 4-0 against the Pac-12 this season, previously beating Arizona, Utah and Arizona State. The Cougars qualified for a bowl game with the win. Washington State had trouble scoring after the loss of Rolovich, a master of its complicated run-and-shoot offense. But they showed heart in losing a close game.

WASHINGTON STATE AT ARIZONA STATE

Oct. 30, 2021 • Sun Devil Stadium • Att.: 46,136 • TV: Fox Sports 1

TEMPE, Ariz. – Washington State was counted out when its head coach and four assistants were fired for refusing the state's vaccination mandate. No way could the Cougars recover from adversity like that. They showed a bit of moxy in a loss to BYU last week and took it a step further against Arizona State behind an opportunistic defense. Jayden de Laura accounted for three touchdowns and Washington State forced five turnovers in a 34-21 win over Arizona State on Saturday. "Ultimately, we know what we have in our building," Washington State edge rusher Ron Stone, Jr. said. "We have what we need in our building to be successful, so there was never any doubt." The Cougars (5-4, 4-2 Pac-12), one of the nation's best at creating takeaways, were at their ball-hawking best in the first half, forcing four turnovers. Washington State's offense capitalized, scoring 24 points after Arizona State turnovers for its first win since coach Nick Rolovich and four assistants were fired on Oct. 18. "By no means did we play the underdog card," Washington State acting head coach and defensive coordinator Jake Dickert said. "We're confident in our ability, confident in what we can do and we're playing good football at the right part of the season." Arizona State is not. The Sun Devils (5-3, 3-2) got off to an abysmal start coming off a bye week, turning it over on their opening three drives, including twice in the first three plays. Jayden Daniels threw two interceptions and Arizona State lost three fumbles to suffer a second straight lackluster defeat that had fans inside Sun Devil Stadium booing throughout. "Our players maybe took this home venue for granted, thinking maybe we play at home everything's supposed to work out," Arizona State coach Herm Edwards said. "Well, it doesn't always work out when you turn the ball over five times, drop balls and give up some big plays in the passing game. We have a lot of fixing to do." The worst part was the Sun Devils had an extra week to regroup after giving up 28 second-half points in a 35-21 loss to Utah on Oct. 16. They could have used another week off. Arizona State bumbled its way through the first half, following the three opening turnovers by turning it over on downs at Washington State's 18-yard line and missing a 32-yard field goal after a false start negated a made one. A holding penalty also wiped out Daniels' 56-yard touchdown run and Danyiel Ngata lost a fumble on the next play. Daniels finally gave Arizona State a glimmer of hope in the final seconds of the first half, throwing a 12-yard TD pass to LV Bunkley-Shelton. That cut Washington State's lead to 28-7. Any chance at momentum ended when Daniels threw a lob that went right to Washington State's Jaylen Watson in the third quarter. "It's very frustrating because that's something we harped on all week," Daniels said. "We put the defense in bad positions. We can't expect the defense to hold up for four quarters if we're going to just keep giving Washington State the ball." While Washington State's defense was creating turnovers, the offense was picking apart the Sun Devils. The Cougars were stopped on downs after the first turnover, but de Laura scored on a 1-yard run then dropped a 28-yard pass over a defender to Travell Harris for a 28-yard touchdown. Deon McIntosh scored on a 1-yard TD run in the second quarter and, after Arizona State's fourth turnover, de Laura found Calvin Jackson, Jr. on a 45-yard touchdown pass to put Washington State up 28-0. Dean Janikowski kicked a 40-yard field goal after Daniels' second interception to make it 31-7 in the third. JACKSON'S LIFT Washington State came into the game hoping to exploit Arizona State's secondary. Jackson certainly did, catching seven passes for a career-best 139 yards and a touchdown. 'BIG PICTURE Washington State's defense created the opportunities and its offense capitalized, keeping the Cougars in the mix for the Pac-12 North title despite losing their head coach less than two weeks ago. Arizona State's bid to win the Pac-12 South took a big hit after consecutive duds. The Sun Devils were outscored by a combined 56-0 in the second half against Utah and the first half against Washington State before Daniels' TD pass to Bunkley-Shelton in the closing seconds.

WASHINGTON STATE AT NO. 3 OREGON

Nov. 13, 2021 • Autzen Stadium • Att.: 52,327 • TV: ESPN

EUGENE, Ore. – Anthony Brown Jr. threw for 135 yards and a touchdown while rushing for 123 yards and another score, and No. 3 Oregon defeated Washington State 38-24 on Saturday night. The Ducks, ranked No. 3 in the College Football Playoff rankings, have won five straight and extended their winning streak at Autzen Stadium to 18 straight games, including 14 straight victories at home over Pac-12 opponents. Oregon (9-1, 6-1 Pac-12) needed to win and for Stanford to beat Oregon State up the road in Corvallis earlier on Saturday to clinch the Pac-12 North. The Beavers didn't hold up their end, winning 35-14 over Stanford. Washington State (5-5, 4-3) tied the game at 14 before halftime but Oregon pulled away in the third quarter. The loss snapped a four-game winning streak over Pac-12 opponents for the Cougars, who fell to BYU on Oct. 23 in a midseason nonconference game. The Cougars still need one more win to become bowl eligible and perhaps redeem a season that has been marked by turbulence. Washington State dismissed head coach Nick Rolovich on Oct. 18 after his refusal to get vaccinated against COVID-19. Saturday's game got off to a strange start. Washington State's second play from scrimmage appeared to be a 77-yard touchdown pass from Jayden de Laura to Calvin Jackson Jr. But on review, Jackson stepped out of bounds at the Oregon 7-yard line. On the next play, de Laura fumbled out of the end zone for an Oregon touchback. Travis Dye plowed his way into the end zone from a yard out to give the Ducks a 7-0 lead. Verone McKinley III got his fifth interception of the season and three plays later Dye scored on an 11-yard pass from Brown. The Cougars closed the margin on de Laura's 14-year pass to De'Zhaun Stribling midway through the second quarter. De Laura's 1-yard keeper with 11 seconds left in the half tied it at 14. Oregon scored on Brown's 17-yard scramble on their first series of the second half to pull back in front. The Ducks extended the lead on Camden Lewis' 22-yard field goal. It appeared that Washington State's George Hicks III recovered a fumble by Brown in the end zone early in the fourth quarter and ran it back 50 yards. After review, the play stood. De Laura hit Travell Harris with a 38-yard pass to get to the Oregon 11, but the Ducks' defense held and the Cougars settled for a Dean Janikowski's 34-yard field goal to make it 24-17. Byron Caldwell ran for a 27-yard touchdown with 5:52 left, before a 22-yard scoring run with 2:07 for the Ducks. De Laura's 2-yard TD pass to Harris ended it. Dye ran for 88 yards and a score, and had 25 yards receiving and another TD. De Laura threw for 280 yards and two touchdowns for the Cougars. He was intercepted twice. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: Washington State hasn't defeated a team ranked in the AP Top 25 since No. 25 Iowa State in the 2018 Alamo Bowl. The Cougars last defeated a team in the top 10 in 2017, when they upset No. 5 Southern California in Pullman, Washington. ... Washington State was coming off a bye. Oregon: Last year in Pullman, the Cougars led 19-14 at halftime but the then-No. 11 Ducks pulled away in the second half, with Dye catching two second-half touchdown passes, to win 43-29.

ARIZONA AT WASHINGTON STATE

Nov. 19, 2021 • Gesa Field • Att.: 17,344 • TV: Pac-12 Networks

PULLMAN, Wash. – Max Borghi rushed for a career-high 139 yards and two touchdowns in the last home game of his career, Travell Harris and Calvin Jackson Jr. each had two touchdown receptions, and Washington State became bowl eligible with a 44-18 win over Arizona on Friday night. A season filled with drama at Washington State (6-5, 5-3 Pac-12) surrounding former head coach Nick Rolovich - fired last month for refusing to receive a COVID-19 vaccine - will likely end with a bowl trip for the Cougars. Borghi ran for touchdowns of 26 and 2 yards on a foggy night on the Palouse where the field at times was obscured and snow flurries fell through the air. His previous career-high of 128 yards came in the 2019 season opener against New Mexico State. "That was classic Max Borghi," Washington State interim coach Jake Dickert said. "Our fans will remember Max and obviously he's gonna be a hall of famer here one day, so it was exciting to put a stamp on his career like that." Arizona has allowed 173 yards per game on the ground this season, but the Cougars surpassed that total with ease. "They ran the ball extremely well on us tonight which I don't think we expected," Arizona coach Jedd Fisch said. Washington State quarterback Jayden de Laura was 13 of 22 for 259 yards passing. De Laura hit Harris for an 8-yard touchdown in the second quarter and a 30-yarder in the third quarter that gave Washington State a 37-7 lead. De Laura also hit Jackson on a 43-yard TD late in the first half less than a minute after Arizona had scored to pull within 14-7. Jackson added the capper with a 78-yard TD reception from de Laura in the fourth quarter. Harris now has nine touchdown catches on the season and has five career game with multiple receiving touchdowns. Joey Hobert also blocked two Arizona punts, one that went out of the end zone for a safety. "The guys took the field tonight with a passion and an energy and a focus that wasn't going to be matched," Dickert said. Will Plummer threw for 222 yards and two touchdowns in a losing effort for the Wildcats (1-10, 1-7). Plummer hit Boobie Curry on an 11-yard TD in the second quarter that was set up by Drake Anderson's 71-yard run. Plummer threw a 27-yard TD to Michael Wiley in the fourth quarter. Anderson finished with 87 yards rushing. "It started at the very beginning. I don't think we played or coached as well as we would have liked," Fisch said. Washington State was explosive on offense all night long, with eight plays of more than 25 yards. Despite poor conditions, the Cougars maintained balance with 259 yards passing and 223 yards on the ground. THE TAKEAWAY Arizona: The Wildcats had been competitive in recent weeks, with close losses to Washington, USC, Utah and its lone victory over California. The Wildcats never got going offensively and seemed to lose any momentum they had giving up a long touchdown to Washington State late in the first half. Arizona lost middle linebacker Jerry Roberts to a left leg injury on the first play of the game. Roberts was taken off the field on a cart. Washington State: The Cougars are bowl eligible for the seventh time in the past nine seasons. WСУ went to five straight bowl games prior to the pandemic-shortened 2020 season and its last bowl game was the 2019 Cheez-It Bowl.

WASHINGTON STATE AT WASHINGTON

Nov. 26, 2021 • Husky Stadium • Att.: 68,077 • TV: Fox Sports 1

SEATTLE – Travell Harris rode on the shoulders of the crimson fans that engulfed the field. Jayden de Laura waived a version of Ol' Crimson before spiking the unmistakable flag into the turf field. Even Butch, the Washington State mascot, took his turn crowd surfing on the field at Husky Stadium. After seven straight losses to its rivals, Washington State had a celebration to remember after the most lopsided Cougars' victory in the history of the rivalry matchup against Washington. "It's special. Coug Nation deserves it, this team deserved it, the seniors deserved it," Washington State running back Max Borghi said. "I can't really put words into it yet, it hasn't really sunk in. But holding that Apple Cup trophy is something we've all dreamt about and it was incredible." Borghi rushed for 129 yards and two touchdowns, and Washington State handed Washington a 40-13 defeat in the Apple Cup on Friday night. The Cougars snapped a seven-game losing streak to their rivals, picking up their first win in the series since 2012 and first at Husky Stadium since 2007. And the Cougars (7-5, 6-3 Pac-12) did it in grand, record-setting fashion with a dominant and complete thumping that left those in crimson rushing the field to celebrate while those clad in purple made an early move to the exits. The 27-point margin of victory topped the previous high of 26 points when Washington State won 52-26 in 1973, a game also played in Seattle. "This win, it wasn't just for us," Washington State linebacker Justus Rogers said. "It was for the people that came before us, the teams that came before us that I've been a part of as well." Borghi scored on a 32-yard touchdown run on Washington State's opening possession and set the tone for the night. He added a 1-yard TD run in the third quarter and only the Cougars' inability to finish drives in the first half kept the game from being even more one-sided. De Laura hit 21 of his first 22 pass attempts and finished 27 of 32 for 245 yards. Dean Janikowski kicked four field goals for Washington State as well. The victory may have locked up the head coaching position permanently for interim head coach Jake Dickert, who was already receiving significant support for the job he's done in the wake of Nick Rolovich being fired in mid-October. The Cougars went 3-2 in Dickert's five games in charge. And there could still be one more game to come besides a bowl trip for Washington State. If Oregon State can beat Oregon on Saturday it will be the Cougars as the Pac-12 North representative opposite Utah in the Pac-12 championship game next Friday in Las Vegas. "They've given me everything they can and they stay together and they trusted each other. They've kept believing," Dickert said. "It's very fitting for these guys to go out there and to enjoy this moment to bring the Apple Cup back home." Washington (4-8, 3-6) capped its worst season since going winless in 2008. The Huskies were already assured of a losing record after last week's loss at Colorado and their performance against the Cougars was bland and at times lifeless. Highly-touted Washington freshman quarterback Sam Huard made his first start of the season as Dylan Morris was relegated to spectator for the season finale. Fans have called for Huard as the offensive struggles have continued all season. Huard was put into a tough position and his performance matched his inexperience. Huard threw four interceptions, the last one a deflection that should have been caught by Devin Culp and was returned 28 yards by Armani Marsh for a touchdown, his second interception of the game. Huard finished 17 of 31 passing or 190 yards. He threw the first touchdown of his career as Rome Odunze made a terrific catch for a 16-yard TD early in the fourth quarter. STREAK ENDS Washington's streak of holding opponents under 36 points came to an end at 86. The last team to score 36 or more against Washington was UCLA in a 44-30 loss to the Bruins in 2014. It was the longest active streak in the country. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: It was the 12th time in the history of the Apple Cup the Cougars won by double figures and the first double-digit winner since 23-6 in 1994. Washington State's last six wins in the series had all been by seven points or less. ... Washington State led 13-7 at halftime, its first halftime lead in the Apple Cup since 2013. Washington: The Huskies are facing a major rebuild whoever ends up with the head coaching job after the firing of Jimmy Lake.

WASHINGTON STATE VS. CENTRAL MICHIGAN

Dec. 31, 2021 • Sun Bowl Stadium • Att.: 34,540 • TV: CBS

EL PASO, Texas – Lew Nichols III ran for 130 yards and a touchdown, leading late replacement Central Michigan to a 24-21 victory over Washington State in the Sun Bowl on Friday. The Chippewas (9-4) ended a five-game bowl losing streak with their fifth consecutive victory this season. When Boise State opted out of the Arizona Bowl because of COVID-19 issues, Central Michigan switched about 300 miles west from Tucson, Arizona, to the Texas border city of El Paso. Miami skipped the Sun Bowl for COVID-19 reasons as well. Central Michigan stayed in Arizona before bussing to El Paso the day before the game. Washington State (7-6) never could get its offense going in the first half, finishing with just 53 yards and trailing 21-0 at the break. The Cougars dropped to 8-9 all-time in bowls. The Cougars rallied in the second half behind backup quarterback Victor Gabalis, scoring three times to make it close. Gabalis was 12 of 23 passing for 180 yards and two TDs. After a 13-yard scoring toss to Lincoln Victor pulled the Cougars within three points with 3:13 remaining, they had another chance starting at their 14-yard line with 2:41 remaining. Central Michigan stopped Joey Hobert a yard short on a catch on fourth-and-5. Marshall Meeder kicked three field goals for Central Michigan, including a 52-yarder for a 6-0 lead and a 43-yarder for a 10-point lead early in the fourth quarter. THE TAKEAWAY Central Michigan: It was the first victory in a bowl against a Power Five opponent for the Mid-American Conference team. The Chippewas were seven-point underdogs. Washington State: The Cougars were without starting tackles Liam Ryan and Abe Lucas for coach Jake Dickert's first game on the sideline since having the interim tagged removed. Running backs Max Borghi opted out and Deon McIntosh did not play.

1916 ROSE BOWL

WSU 14, BROWN 0

January 1, 1916, Pasadena, Calif. — A crowd of 10,000 was on hand at the Pasadena Rose Bowl January 1 to watch as undefeated Washington State took on eastern power Brown University in the first of the continuous Rose Bowls. WSU used third and fourth quarter touchdown runs by Ralph Boone and Carl Dietz to shutout the Bruins 14-0. Brown entered the game a two-to-one favorite, despite a modest 5-3-1 record. The Bruins' 3-0 win over Yale was the key accomplishment that earned the Rhode Island team an invitation to play in the Rose Bowl. A cold spell, followed by a heavy rain and some snow for three days prior to the game, turned the playing field into a sea of mud that slowed both teams. Brown came close to scoring twice in the first half, but each time Washington State's defense, which had allowed just one field goal and one touchdown all season, rose to the task and halted the Bruins short of the goal line, once at the four yard line. Bruin star Fritz Pollard gained just 47 yards in 13 carries. Pollard later became the first black named to a Walter Camp All-America team and was the first black head coach in the National Football League. In the second half WSU's size advantage began to pay off as the Cougars took command, scoring once in each quarter. WSU's preparation for the game had been, to say the least, odd. Coach William "Lone Star" Dietz, out of the Carlisle Indian School, and his Cougar squad served as extras in the football film "Tom Brown of Harvard" each morning, then practiced for the bowl game during the afternoon. Each WSU player earned $100 for the 14 mornings of movie work. During practice sessions, Dietz appeared in his "classic" coaching attire: a silk hat, Prince Albert cutaway coat, striped pants, yellow gloves, and a walking stick. Originally known as the Pasadena Tournament of Roses East-West game (it was 1923 when the real Rose Bowl facility was completed that the name changed), the WSU-Brown game was played at Tournament Park.

1931 ROSE BOWL

ALABAMA 24, WSU 0

January 1, 1931, Pasadena, Calif. - The Alabama Crimson Tide used a second-quarter blitz, including touchdown runs of one and 43 yards by quarterback Monk Campbell, to post a 24-0 win over previously undefeated Washington State in the 17th Rose Bowl game, viewed by 65,000 fans. Alabama's coach was Wallace Wade, who had been a member of the Brown University team that lost to WSU in the 1916 Rose Bowl. Wade, during his career, coached in five Rose Bowls.

"Babe" Hollingbery's fifth Cougar team went a perfect 9-0-0 to earn a Rose Bowl berth in 1930, including a 6-0 mark during the Pacific Coast Conference schedule. Included in the list of Cougar victims were California 16-0, USC 7-6, Washington 3-0 and Villanova 13-0. Two members of the WSU team later earned recognition in the College Football Hall of Fame, Mel Hein and Glen "Turk" Edwards.

1981 HOLIDAY BOWL

#14 BYU 38, #20 WSU 36

December 18, 1981, San Diego - Three games in one was more than the 52,000-plus fans at San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium paid for, but three games is what they saw as the Brigham Young Cougars held on to defeat the Washington State Cougars 38-36. The BYU squad won the first game, a 31-minute affair that generated a 31-7 lead for the team from Provo. The next 25 minutes just as convincingly belonged to WSU 29-7. In the end, however, the game belonged to BYU as much for defense as anything. They stopped the Pullman team with just over three minutes to play by forcing a punt, then ran out the clock to preserve the win. Jim McMahon, in his last collegiate game, completed 27 of 43 passes for 342 yards and three touchdowns. More importantly, he did not throw an interception. The WSU Cougars used the running of Don LaBomme and quarterback Ricky Turner to baffle the BYU team, especially in the second half. Turner gained 92 yards in 12 carries and scored twice, while LaBomme added 79 yards in 14 carries and scored once. Robert Williams and Mike Martin also scored for the Cougars. WSU's failure on a two-point conversion late in the third quarter, an interception BYU's Ron Holmoe returned 35 yards for a touchdown on the third play of the third quarter, and a key sack of Casper on WSU's last possession loomed big in a game that had numerous turning points.

1988 ALOHA BOWL

#18 WSU 24, #14 HOUSTON 22

December 25, 1988, Honolulu - Washington State scored 24 second-quarter points and forced a last-second Houston turnover in notching a 24-22 win over the Texan Cougars Christmas Day. The bowl appearance was WSU's second of the 1980s and evened the Cougars bowl record to 2-2. In a close game there are many heroes, but for WSU, none stood out more than senior Victor Wood. He picked up a fumble early in the second quarter and zipped five yards for a touchdown that put his Cougars ahead 7-3. On WSU's next possession, Wood caught a 15-yard scoring pass from Timm Rosenbach to put WSU up 14-3 and well on its way to a bowl victory viewed by a national ABC-TV audience. Wood's heroics were catching as WSU added a Jason Hanson 33-yard field goal and another touchdown, this one by Rosenbach, before halftime to put Washington State in command 24-9. WSU limited the Texas visitors to just five first half firstdowns, 46 yards rushing, and 77 yards passing before intermission. The Cougars picked off two Houston passes, one each by Shawn Landrum and Vernon Todd. In the end, however, it was Tuineau Alipate's hard hit that forced a Houston fumble recovered by Artie Holmes at the WSU five yard line. James Dixon was the recipient of Alipate's jarring tackle after catching a David Dacus pass over the middle that appeared for a moment to set up a potential game-winning score by Houston. The Cougars then controlled the ball for the final 2:44, with a key six-yard Rosenbach to Tim Stallworth pass giving WSU the much-needed first down just before the game ended.

1992 COPPER BOWL

#18 WSU 31, UTAH 28

December 29, 1992, Tucson, Ariz. - Perhaps no college bowl game following the 1992 gridiron season was more offensive minded than the Copper Bowl matchup between WSU and Utah, but after all the running and passing that accounted for more than 1,100 yards, the deciding play was a 22-yard field goal by WSU's Aaron Price. The Cougars scored 21 unanswered points in the first quarter and one additional score just before halftime for a 28-14 lead. WSU then held on until Price gave them their final lead with 5:08 to play. Even then, they had to watch anxiously as Chris Yergensen's 20-yard chip shot sailed wildly to the left with 3:18 remaining. Though the 40,000-plus fans left the stadium talking about the offensive plays that stood out, it was WSU's defense in the fourth quarter that made this win possible. The Utes scored twice in the second quarter and added two more scores to pull even with a quarter to play. Both teams then turned to their defenses. The key play came with 6:29 to play when Utah's Frank Dolce avoided a strong WSU rush and hooked up with Henry Lusk on a short sideline pass. John Rushing then stripped Lusk of the ball and Singor Mobley scooped it up at the Utah 36 yard line. Fifteen yards later, at the Utah 21, Mobley was dragged down, setting up the Cougars with great field position. Drew Bledsoe immediately drove the Cougars to the Utah five yard line before turning the scoring chores over to Price. Like he did the closing seconds of WSU's 23-20 win over Arizona in the same stadium early in the season, Price came through with the kick. Bledsoe completed 30 of 46 passes for a school record 476 yards. Phillip Bobo caught TD passes of 87 (equalling a school record) and 48 yards, and Shaumbe Wright-Fair picked up 123 yards rushing and scored on a pair of three-yard line smashes.

1994 ALAMO BOWL

#24 WSU 10, BAYLOR 3

December 31, 1994, San Antonio - The Washington State offense scored on the opening drive of the game and on the last play of the second quarter to provide all the points the Cougar defense needed as WSU held off Baylor's late challenge in a 10-3 win at the second annual Builders Square Alamo Bowl before a crowd of 44,106. Despite some anxious moments in the closing seconds of the game, the Cougar defense made those 10 points stand up by limiting the record-setting Bear offense to eight first downs, 151 yards in total offense and just one field goal. The Cougars did something against Baylor they had not done all season, take the opening kickoff and drive the length of the field for a touchdown. The drive totaled 91 yards, equalling the longest scoring drive of the season, and ended when Kevin Hicks busted through the left side of the line from one yard out to put WSU on top 7-0. The score came six minutes, 32 seconds after the kickoff. WSU's offense provided three more points just before halftime to give the Cougs a 10-0 lead at intermission. Taking the ball after Baylor's Jarvis VanDyke missed his second field goal attempt of the first half, WSU drove from its own 30 yard line to the Baylor 20 yard line, where Tony Truant banged home a 37-yard field goal with two seconds left in the first half. A sideline pass to Jay Dumas for a key first down, then another similar pass to Albert Kennedy put the ball in perfect position for Truant. Davis, named the game's most valuable offensive player, hit six of eight passes on the drive. Davis, who completed 27 of 35 passes for 286 yards, gave Cougar fans a few anxious minutes in the third quarter when he took a hard blow to the back while scrambling out of the pocket. He was able to return one play later and finished the game. Defensively WSU was especially tough in the first half. Baylor came into the game averaging nearly 33 points per game and 382.4 yards per contest. In the first half WSU's defense, led by the game's most valuable defensive player, Ron Childs, limited the Bears to just 41 net yards, 24 rushing and 17 passing. Childs had 10 tackles in the game, including eight solo, of which two were for negative yardage. Only on its last possession did Baylor come close to the WSU endzone, where Todd Jensen, a senior who backed up John Rushing all year, picked off a Jeff Watson pass to halt any Baylor hope of scoring. The bowl victory was WSU's second in the last three years and third in seven years. Joining Childs defensively were Chris Hayes with seven tackles, Mark Fields with six and Chad Eaton with five.

1998 ROSE BOWL

#1 MICHIGAN 21, #8 WSU 16

January 1, 1998, Pasadena, Calif. - The Washington State Cougars, making their first Rose Bowl appearance in 67 years, pushed national champion and number one ranked Michigan to the last play of the game before falling to the Wolverines 21-16 before 101,219 fans and a world-wide television audience. The victory left Michigan a perfect 13-0 for the season, bumping the Cougars to a 10-2 record. After Michigan thwarted two WSU drives to start the game, the Cougar defense forced a Wolverine punt that would set up WSU's first scoring drive. The Cougs took over on the Michigan 47-yard-line with 6:26 to play in the first quarter. Ryan Leaf completed two passes during the drive, including a 15-yard touchdown toss to Kevin McKenzie with 3:17 left in the first quarter. Rian Lindell's point-after gave WSU the early 7-0 advantage. WSU came close to taking a 14-point lead, but Heisman Trophy winner Charles Woodson halted a WSU drive in the Michigan endzone when he intercepted a Leaf pass from the 12 yard line. The Wolverine's answering scoring drive began from their own 34-yard-line at the 8:04 mark in the second quarter and ended with a 58-yard pass from Bob Griese to Tai Streets that completed the first half scoring. Early in the second half, WSU took over 99 yards from the endzone after Michigan's Jason Vinson dropped a perfect punt just outside the endzone. Shawn Tims put the finishing touches on WSU's 99 yard drive in nine plays, taking a reverse handoff the final 14 yards. Leaf hit four of five passes in the drive that amassed 73 yards. Lindell's PAT attempt was blocked by Michigan's James Hall, leaving the WSU advantage at 13-7. The Wolverines responded immediately, moving the ball on their next possession to their 39 yard-line to set up another Griese-to-Streets touchdown combination, this time 58 yards. Baker's point-after gave Michigan their first lead, 14-13 with 6:07 left in the third quarter. Michigan then padded their lead with a 14-play, 77-yard drive that ended in Griese's third touchdown pass of the game, a 23-yarder to Jerame Tuman. Baker's extra-point kick increased the Michigan advantage to 21-13 with 11:21 to play. Washington State responded immediately with an eight-play, 49-yard drive that set up a 48-yard field goal by Lindell, cutting Michigan's lead to five points, 21-16 with 7:25 remaining. The Wolverines then put together a 51-yard drive that consumed almost seven minutes off the game clock. When Jay Feely's pooch punt rolled dead at the WSU seven-yard-line, the Cougars' victory hopes were 93 yards and 29 seconds away. After two incomplete passes, the Cougars faced third-and-10 with only 16 seconds left. Leaf then found Nian Taylor along the sideline for a gain of 46, to the Michigan 47-yard-line. After a delay of game penalty, Leaf hit Love Jefferson at the Michigan 25 and the Coug tight end lateraled to a streaking Jason Clayton, who managed nine more yards before being brought down in bounds at Michigan's 16 yard line with 0:02 on the game clock. Out of timeouts, WSU was forced to try and spike the ball on first-down, but officials ruled that the final two seconds slipped away before the ball was effectively downed, thus preventing WSU's one final shot at a major upset.

2003 ROSE BOWL

#8 OKLAHOMA 34, #7 WSU 14

January 1, 2003, Pasadena, Calif. – Oklahoma's vaunted defense stifled Washington State's high-flying passing attack and captured the 89th Rose Bowl Game 34-14 in front of 86,848 fans New Year's Day. The Sooners broke the game open with a pair of touchdowns inside the two-minute mark of the first half. The first came on a 12-yard touchdown pass from Nate Hybl, the game's most valuable player. Antonio Perkins extended OU's lead to 17-0 with a 51-yard punt return just 42 seconds later. Hybl connected on 19 of 29 passes for 240 yards and two touchdowns. Sooner running back Quentin Griffin carried the ball 30 times for 144 yards. WSU quarterback Jason Gesser finished his career by completing 17 of 34 passes for 240 yards and a touchdown. Sammy Moore provided the game's final highlight, returning an OU kick 89 yards for a score with just 1:15 remaining. Linebacker Teddy Lehman led the Big XII Champions with six tackles, including two sacks, while free safety Erik Coleman recorded 10 tackles and recovered a fumble for the Cougars.

2003 HOLIDAY BOWL

#15 WSU 28, #5 TEXAS 20

December 30, 2003, San Diego, Calif. – Washington State reached the 10-win plateau for the third time in as many seasons with a 28-20 comeback victory over Texas in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl. Facing a 10-7 halftime deficit, the Cougars rallied to score three touchdowns in the third quarter and take a 26-10 lead into the final stanza. The second half fireworks began with a 54-yard touchdown pass from Matt Kegel to Sammy Moore with just over nine minutes left in the third. WSU used a trick play to get in the end zone once again four minutes later. Kegel lined up under center, but instead of taking the snap, ran in motion to the right sideline, leaving running back Jonathan Smith alone in the backfield. Smith fumbled the snap, but recovered and ran 12 yards for a touchdown. Two Texas possessions later, the WSU defense continued the onslaught when Jason David recovered a fumble and took it 18 yards for the Cougs' final touchdown of the game. Washington State's defense forced a fourth quarter safety to push its total to 28. Moore earned most valuable offensive player honors after converting both of his catches for touchdowns and setting up another with a 51-yard punt return. Sophomore Kyle Basler was named the game's most valuable defensive player after pinning the Longhorns inside their own five on four occasions.

2013 NEW MEXICO BOWL

COLORADO STATE 48, WSU 45

December 22, 2013, ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - With less than two minutes to play and Colorado State down by eight points, Shaquill Barrett knew the Rams needed the ball back quickly to finish an improbable comeback against Washington State. Once down by 22 points in the New Mexico Bowl, the Rams got their chance when Cougars running back Jeremiah Laufasa came barreling toward Barrett. That fumble, at the Cougars 33, set up Kapri Bibbs' 1-yard run score and Donnell Alexander's two-point conversion run that tied it at 45 with 33 seconds left. Then, Washington State's Teondray Caldwell fumbled a kickoff return at the 24, setting up Jared Roberts' 41-yard field goal with 3 seconds left that gave Colorado State a 48-45 victory. It was a quarterback shootout that saw close to 800 passing yards combined and a game largely dominated by Washington State until the last 2 minutes. And Colorado State did not have a led the entire game until that winning field goal. Garrett Grayson threw for 369 yards and Bibbs ran for 169 yards and three touchdowns for Colorado State (8-6). The Rams overcame three early turnovers. Meanwhile, Washington State's Connor Halliday threw touchdown passes to six receivers and finished with 410 yards for Washington State (6-7). Those six touchdown passes tied West Virginia's Geno Smith and Iowa's Chuck Long for an NCAA bowl record. After the first touchdown pass, Halliday got into a shouting match with a Colorado State coach when Halliday ran into the Rams' sideline. That exchange created a social media buzz and McElwain vowed to look into it. Washington State scored 35 points in the first half, but had only 10 in the second.

WSU 20, MIAMI 14

EL PASO, Texas - Luke Falk threw two touchdown passes to lead Washington State to a 20-14 victory over Miami on Saturday in the snowy Sun Bowl. Erik Powell added field goals of 30 and 25 yards to help the Cougars (9-4) win a bowl game for the first time since the 2003 Holiday Bowl. Miami (8-5) lost its sixth consecutive bowl game. Washington State led 20-7 at the half and looked in total control, limiting Miami to three first downs over the second and third quarters. The Hurricanes rallied in a blizzard in the fourth. Braxton Berrios' 60-yard end-around run set up Mark Walton's 5-yard scoring run that cut it to 20-14 with 13:10 left. The Cougars, the top passing team in the nation during the regular season, were shut out in the second half, leaving it to their defense to wrap up the victory. Miami had a 5-yard touchdown pass from Brad Kaaya to Stacy Coley called back on a penalty with 5:14 to play. Two players later, Washington State's Marcellus Pippins recovered Walton's fumble at the 4. After a Cougars punt, the Hurricanes were at the Washington State 28, but an end-over-end halfback pass from Joe Yearby was easily intercepted by Shalom Luani with 2:58 to play to seal it for Washington State. Falk, the game's MVP, was 29 of 53 for 295 yards and no interceptions. He threw touchdown passes of 31 yards to running back Jamal Morrow and 25 yards to receiver Gabe Marks. The scoring play to Morrow, during which he turned up the right sideline and carried two defenders into the end zone, gave Washington State a 7-0 lead. Miami tied it at 7 on a 4-yard pass from Brad Kaaya to Coley. The first quarter ended 7-7, but the Cougars ran off 13 straight points in the second. Kaaya was 17 of 30 for 219 yards with one interception. He appeared to give the Hurricanes a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when he connected in the end zone with receiver Rashawn Scott, but the ball came out of Scott's hands and was intercepted by Peyton Pelluer. One of the keys for the Cougars was winning the turnover battle, 3-1. Washington State fumbled in the second quarter, but the defense forced a three-and-out. On the next series, the Cougars used a 14-play drive to get Powell's first field goal and a 10-7 lead. Washington State made it 17-7 on Falk's TD pass to Marks, and Powell made it 20-7.

2016 HOLIDAY BOWL

MINNESOTA 17, WSU 12

SAN DIEGO - Shannon Brooks caught a tipped pass from Mitch Leidner for a 13-yard, go-ahead touchdown in the third quarter and the Minnesota Golden Gophers, beset by turmoil after 10 players were suspended after a sexual assault investigation, upset Luke Falk and the Washington State Cougars 17-12 in the Holiday Bowl on Tuesday night. It was one of the few exciting plays in an otherwise pedestrian edition of what traditionally has been one of the country's most exciting bowl games. WSU cornerback Marcellus Pippins reached up with his right hand and deflected Leidner's pass in the end zone but it went right to Brooks for the TD and a 10-6 lead. That capped an 84-yard, 10-play drive on Minnesota's first possession of the second half. The Golden Gophers (9-4) were looking to regroup after backing down from a threat to skip the game if 10 teammates suspended after a sexual assault investigation weren't reinstated. Their boycott lasted less than 36 hours, with university leadership never blinking. The players backed down amid pressure from many who read details of the allegations. WSU (8-5) ended on a three-game losing streak and was held to its lowest point total of the season. The Cougars had scored more than 50 points four times this season, a school record. The Golden Gophers frustrated Falk most of the game, holding him to 264 yards - 86 below his average - on 30-of-51 passing. Falk didn't crack 200 yards until the final minutes, when he led a drive capped by an 8-yard TD pass to Kyle Sweet. After three tries due to Minnesota penalties, the conversion attempt failed. Minnesota then recovered an onside kick. Falk came in having completed 71 percent of his passes in throwing for 4,204 yards and 37 touchdowns. The Cougars were ranked second in the nation in passing. Falk was intercepted by Adekunle Ayinde on fourth down with 3:05 left. That set up Rodney Smith's 9-yard TD run with 2:06 left for a 17-6 lead. WSU lead 6-3 after a lackluster first half that included just three field goals. The Cougars couldn't get their vaunted Air Raid offense going and crossed the 50 just twice, getting field goals of 26 and 41 yards by Erik Powell. Powell's second field goal was set up when Nnamdi Oguayo hit Leidner and forced a fumble that Isaac Dotson recovered at the Golden Gophers' 38. Minnesota got a 43-yard field goal by Emmitt Carpenter in the second quarter.

2017 HOLIDAY BOWL

NO. 18 MICHIGAN STATE 42, NO. 21 WSU 17

SAN DIEGO - Brian Lewerke threw for 213 yards and three touchdowns, and LJ Scott ran for 110 yards and two scores for No. 18 Michigan State, which took advantage of Luke Falk's absence to rout No. 21 Washington State 42-17 in the Holiday Bowl. Lewerke also rushed for 73 yards for Michigan State (10-3), which rebounded from a dismal 3-9 record last year to reach double digits in wins for the eighth time in program history. Falk, who was photographed earlier in the week with a cast on his left wrist, went through warmups but came out in street clothes at game time. He was replaced by redshirt sophomore Tyler Hilinski, who made his first start and eighth appearance of the season. It's unclear precisely when Falk injured the wrist on his non-throwing hand, but he had issues with it throughout the season. Coach Mike Leach refused to give specifics during the week. Hilinski led WSU (9-4) to a 45-yard field goal by Erik Powell on the Cougars' second drive, but the Cougars were overpowered by the Spartans. Lewerke threw the first of two TD passes to Cody White, a 7-yarder midway through the second quarter, when he was flushed to the left but found the receiver in the back of the end zone. On MSU's next possession, Lewerke took the snap and glanced at his running back, which froze the secondary and allowed Felton Davis III to get wide open for a 49-yard scoring pass. Scott scored on a 3-yard run to give the Spartans a 21-3 halftime time. Early in the third, Lewerke rolled left and had his pass tipped, but a sliding White caught it for a 7-yard touchdown. Lewerke, who finished 13 of 21, was hit hard on a keeper in the third quarter and came out for a few plays. His backup, Damien Terry, scored on a 6-yard keeper to make it 35-3. The Cougars closed the gap when Hilinski threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Tay Martin late in the third quarter and a 15-yarder to Tay in the fourth quarter. Scott scored on a 28-yard burst up the middle with about six minutes left to play. Hilinski was 39 of 50 for 272 yards and two touchdowns, with one interception. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: It was the second straight lackluster Holiday Bowl for Leach's Cougars, who lost 17-12 to Minnesota last year. Besides being without Falk, leading receiver Tavares Martin Jr. was kicked off the team after the regular season and third-leading receiver Isaiah Johnson-Mack left the squad. Michigan State: Scott had his third 100-yard game of the season and ninth of his career. Felton had four catches for 118 yards.

2018 ALAMO BOWL

NO. 12 WSU 28, NO. 25 IOWA STATE 26

SAN ANTONIO – Gardner Minshew II and that glorious mustache conjured up a final bit of magic in a grand finale for Washington State. The graduate transfer quarterback whose whiskered upper lip was loved and mimicked by Cougars fans all season, threw two touchdown passes and ran for another score in sending No. 12 Washington State to a 28-26 win over No. 25 Iowa State in the Alamo Bowl. Minshew's passing and scrambling earned the Cougars (11-2) a school record for wins in a season. He threw for 299 yards, none of them bigger than a play made out of desperation when Iowa State had all the momentum. After watching a 21-10 lead dwindle to 21-20 by early in the fourth quarter, the Cougars stripped the ball from Iowa State running back David Montgomery at the Cyclones' 30. Minshew, who had been held in check in the third quarter, escaped a third-down pass rush to flip a last-second shovel pass to Tay Martin that went for 20 yards. The play stunned the Cyclones, and Max Borghi scored on a 10-yard run the next play. It was just another big fourth-quarter moment for the transfer from East Carolina who coach Mike Leach had lured out West with the promise he could lead the nation in passing. Minshew was the nation's leading passer in yards per game this season and won the Johnny Unitas Award as the nation's top senior quarterback in a season the Cougars fell one game short of playing for the Pac-12 championship. Nearly all of his completions this season were more orthodox than the flip to Martin. None were bigger for the season and the legacy it set for the program. "I want to say thank you to these coaches, this university and these fans for taking me in," Minshew said. "So glad to be a part of this," he said. "One thing I've always been told is to leave a place better than we found it. This place could be really special." The Cyclones did a good job in bottling him up for much of the game. Iowa State's defense held Washington State 10 points and 135 yards below their season averages and two of the Cougars' touchdowns came on short drives after turnovers. But after Minshew found a way to get Washington State in the end zone, the Cougars' defense made the one play it had to at the end. Iowa State's last chance came after quarterback Brock Purdy scored from a yard out with 4:02 left. The Cyclones went for two, but a pass to Montgomery was stopped well short of the goal line after a false-start penalty pushed the line of scrimmage back to the 8. Iowa State had seven false start penalties and had two players ejected for targeting hits on Minshew. Purdy passed for 315 yards and Cyclones receiver Hakeem Butler caught nine passes for 192 yards, six shy of the Alamo Bowl record. Montgomery rushed for 124 yards. The Cyclones (8-5) had rallied from a 1-3 start to finish third in the Big 12, the program's best conference finish in 40 years. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: Minshew completed 9 of 13 passes in the fourth quarter for 78 yards. After Iowa State's final touchdown, he completed three passes, two of them converting third downs, as the Cougars ran out the clock. Iowa State: Turnovers and targeting calls were critical. Purdy threw two first-quarter interceptions and Montgomery's fumble was a game-changer. Iowa State had two key defenders ejected in the second quarter for targeting hits to Minshew. TOUCH-DOWN TAUNTING Washington State cornerback Marcus Strong had a long touchdown interception return wiped out in the first quarter when he was flagged for taunting on his way into the endzone. Strong stepped in front of a pass intended for Butler and had a clear path to the goal line. He was penalized because he held the ball out and looked back as Purdy made a futile dive for his feet. Instead of the score, the Cougars got the ball on the Iowa State 20 and scored two plays later when Minshew connected with Renard Bell.

2019 CHEEZ-IT BOWL

NO. 24 AIR FORCE 31, WSU 21

PHOENIX – Air Force clung to a three-point lead, the clock showing plenty of time left for one of the nation's most prolific offenses. A field goal was not going to be good enough. The Falcons needed a touchdown to leave Washington State no chance. Going for it on fourth down was the only option - and it worked. Kadin Remsburg ran for 178 yards and stretched to the pylon for a 3-yard touchdown on a late fourth down, lifting No. 24 Air Force to a 31-21 victory over Washington State in the Cheez-It Bowl on Friday night. The Falcons (11-2) had their triple option working to near perfection, grinding out 371 yards rushing while setting a Cheez-It Bowl time of possession record of 43:24. Donald Hammond III scored two touchdowns and Air Force carried a 10-point lead into the fourth quarter, yet couldn't shake the high-scoring Cougars. Anthony Gordon, the FBS passing leader, kept Washington State within reach, throwing for 351 yards and three touchdowns. He hit Brandon Arconado on a 13-yard TD to pull Washington State (6-7) within 24-21 late in the fourth quarter, giving the Cougars a shot at the comeback finish. Air Force methodically worked the ball down to Washington State's 4-yard line, but failed to punch the ball into the end zone on three tries. After a timeout, Hammond ran an option left and pitched the ball to Remsburg, who got the edge and reached the ball to the pylon with a defender dragging him. The touchdown was upheld on review. The 2018 game was dubbed the Cheez-INT Bowl after TCU and California combined for nine interceptions. A year later, Air Force and Washington State brought philosophical differences to the desert. The Falcons like to stay grounded, running 57 times a game while finishing third in the FBS at 292.5 yards per game. The Cougars love to fly, putting it up 56 times a game to lead the nation with nearly 450 yards a game. Washington State started the Cheez-It Bowl quickly, racing down the field with a series of completions, only to get stuffed by an Air Force goal-line stand. The Falcons' opening drive was a yard-churning, clock-winding grind, covering 98 yards in 20 plays and 12:23. Hammond capped it with a 1-yard TD run. Air Force's next two drives took less time combined than the first, ending in Jake Koehnke's 28-yard field goal and Taven Birdow's 3-yard run after Gordon lost a fumble at Washington State's 23. The Cougars had two more quick-hitting drives to pull within 17-14 at halftime on Gordon's two TD passes. Air Force went right back to the ground to open the second half; 13 plays, 75 yards, capped by Hammond's 7-yard TD run. Washington State had another fourth-down failure, this one at Air Force's 5-yard line, but bounced back quickly with Gordon's TD pass to Arconado. The Cougars just couldn't stop Air Force and Remsburg's diving TD run capped another long scoring drive to seal it. THE TAKEAWAY Air Force won the line of scrimmage and its 11th game of the season, second only to 12-win seasons in 1985 and 1998. Washington State was hurt by the two failed fourth downs and its inability to decipher Air Force's triple option. FOURTH-DOWN DECISIONS Leach has been known as a gambler on fourth downs, often preferring to go for it over punting or kicking field goals. He stuck by his decisions at the Cheez-It Bowl, even though neither worked.

2021 SUN BOWL

CENTRAL MICHIGAN 24, WSU 21

EL PASO, Texas – Lew Nichols III ran for 130 yards and a touchdown, leading late replacement Central Michigan to a 24-21 victory over Washington State in the Sun Bowl on Friday. The Chippewas (9-4) ended a five-game bowl losing streak with their fifth consecutive victory this season. When Boise State opted out of the Arizona Bowl because of COVID-19 issues, Central Michigan switched about 300 miles west from Tucson, Arizona, to the Texas border city of El Paso. Miami skipped the Sun Bowl for COVID-19 reasons as well. Central Michigan stayed in Arizona before bussing to El Paso the day before the game. Washington State (7-6) never could get its offense going in the first half, finishing with just 53 yards and trailing 21-0 at the break. The Cougars dropped to 8-9 all-time in bowls. The Cougars rallied in the second half behind backup quarterback Victor Gabalis, scoring three times to make it close. Gabalis was 12 of 23 passing for 180 yards and two TDs. After a 13-yard scoring toss to Lincoln Victor pulled the Cougars within three points with 3:13 remaining, they had another chance starting at their 14-yard line with 2:41 remaining. Central Michigan stopped Joey Hobert a yard short on a catch on fourth-and-5. Marshall Meeder kicked three field goals for Central Michigan, including a 52-yarder for a 6-0 lead and a 43-yarder for a 10-point lead early in the fourth quarter. THE TAKEAWAY Central Michigan: It was the first victory in a bowl against a Power Five opponent for the Mid-American Conference team. The Chippewas were seven-point underdogs. Washington State: The Cougars were without starting tackles Liam Ryan and Abe Lucas for coach Jake Dickert's first game on the sideline since having the interim tagged removed. Running backs Max Borghi opted out and Deon McIntosh did not play.

In 2002 WSU began compiling roster information on all players who have earned varsity letters. The project is on-going. If you have missing information for players prior to 1950, please e-mail the information to wsstevens@wsu.edu.

Kirk H. Schulz is the 11th president of Washington State University and a tenured professor in the Gene and Linda Voiland School of Chemical Engineering and Bioengineering.

A nationally respected leader in higher education, President Schulz has made great strides in expanding the reach and effectiveness of the WSU system of campuses, Extension offices, and other programs to better serve the State of Washington. Since joining WSU in June 2016, his duties have evolved from operating as the chief executive of the WSU Pullman campus to setting the strategic vision and direction for the entire WSU system, advocating for higher-education policy, engaging in philanthropic priorities, and representing WSU at the state and federal levels.

Under President Schulz's leadership, the university enrolled a record 31,607 students system-wide in 2019, completed its first system-wide strategic plan in 2020, set a record for philanthropic giving in 2022, and opened several new teaching and research facilities designed to advance WSU's land-grant mission of serving the public good.

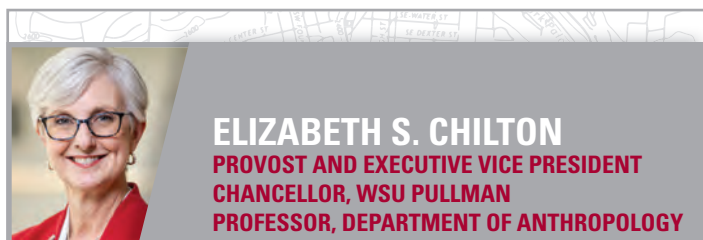

Prior to his appointment at WSU, President Schulz served as the 13th president of Kansas State University. He has had an extensive career as a faculty member and administrator at several public research universities including serving as Vice President for Research and Economic Development, Dean of the Bagley College of Engineering, and Director for the Dave Swalm School of Chemical Engineering at Mississippi State University. He was also a faculty member and held various leadership positions at Michigan Technological University and the University of North Dakota.

President Schulz has been honored for his leadership and service throughout his career in academia. He was inducted into the Virginia Tech Academy of Engineering Excellence in 2019 and is a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS) and the American Society for Engineering Education (ASEE).

As an administrator, President Schulz has proven to be a passionate supporter of intercollegiate athletics. He currently sits on the Pac-12 Board of Directors, is a member of the Executive Committee, and is the Pac-12 representative for the College Football Playoff Board of Managers. He previously served as chair of the NCAA Board of Governors, the association's governing body and highest-ranking committee.

President Schulz received his B.S. in Chemical Engineering (1986) and his Ph.D. in Chemical Engineering (1991) from Virginia Tech.

He is married to Dr. Noel Nunnally Schulz. They have two sons, Tim and Andrew.

Dr. Elizabeth Chilton was named provost and executive vice president in May of 2020 and began serving at WSU in July. In January 2022, she was named Chancellor for the WSU Pullman flagship campus.

A first-generation college student, Chilton earned her PhD at the University of Massachusetts Amherst, after earning her BA at the University at Albany, State University of New York.

From 2017 to 2020 she served as dean of the Harpur College of Arts and Sciences at Binghamton University, one of the largest universities in the SUNY system. Prior to her tenure at Binghamton, Chilton spent nearly 16 years as a professor and leader at the University of Massachusetts. She served as a professor, anthropology department chair and associate vice chancellor for research and engagement, among other roles. She worked toward making the institutions she's served more accessible, diverse, and inclusive.

After earning her PhD, Chilton got her start in academia at Harvard University, where she was an tenure track assistant professor and served as the Associate Curator for the Archeology of Northeastern North America at the institution's Peabody Museum.

In addition to her administrative roles, Chilton is a respected author, teacher, and scholar of New England archeology and Native American studies.

Chilton serves as president of the Archaeology Division of the American Anthropological Association, and has served as a faculty fellow for the Higher Education Leadership Programs for Women, or HERS, which aims to create and sustain a diverse network of bold women leaders. She's been involved in more than a dozen conferences since 1999, serving as an organizer as well as a moderator and panelist, and is the author of dozens of peer-reviewed book chapters and journal articles.

PAT
CHUN*DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Since arriving in Pullman, Washington State Director of Athletics Pat Chun, who begins his fifth year as WSU's Director of Athletics, has overseen an incredible transformation of Cougar Athletics, both on the fields and courts of competition and off. From record setting student-athlete academic achievements to unprecedented fundraising totals; from transformative facility projects to innovative student-welfare programming, all based on UNLEASH, a comprehensive strategic plan Chun led upon his arrival.

During his time in Pullman, Chun has taken a national leadership role throughout the Pac-12 and NCAA, serving on numerous committees, including:

- NCAA Division I Transformation Committee
- NCAA Division I Council
- NCAA Constitution Committee (2021)
- NACDA 1st Vice President
- Co-Chair Pac-12 ImPACT Leadership Council
- Co-Founder Asian American & Pacific Islander Athletics Alliance (4AAPI)

In January 2018, Chun became the school's 14th Director of Athletics and the first Asian-American athletic director to lead a Power Five school. He also had another first in 2019, becoming the first WSU athletics leader to be named Under Armor Athletic Director of the Year.

Under his leadership, Cougar programs have reached NCAA Championships in 10 sports, while 46 WSU student-athletes earned All-American honors, 147 All-Conference honors, 808 Academic All-Conference honors and six conference champions. The Cougars have seen program-best performances from multiple sports, with football entering the 2022 season having played in six-consecutive bowl games (non-COVID) for the first time in school history, while women's soccer reached the College Cup in 2019 for the first time. Women's volleyball enters 2022 with six-straight NCAA appearances while women's basketball enters this year with back-to-back NCAA Championship appearances for the first time in program history and men's basketball enters the season off an NIT Semifinal appearance in 2021-22.

In the classroom, the academic performance of WSU student-athletes has set or tied program highs for cumulative GPA in six of the last eight semesters entering the Fall of 2021, including a department record 3.36 semester GPA in the Spring of 2020. WSU also posted its highest Graduation Success Rate ever in 2018-19 and for the most recent 2021-22 academic year, WSU student-athletes earned their highest cumulative GPA (3.21)

Chun has spearheaded several initiatives to improve the student-athlete experience and their welfare, including enhancements to mental health awareness, which resulted in WSU Athletics being awarded the Washington State Psychological Association's Public Citizen Award in 2018. WSU Athletics is also committed to diversity and inclusion efforts, working closely with WSU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and the Black Student-Athlete Association to increase education and programming. For the 201-22 academic year, WSU's BSAA was named Organization of the Year at the inaugural Black Student-Athlete Summit Awards ceremony.

Under his leadership, Cougar fundraising has been revitalized, setting all-time highs in annual giving and total donations since his arrival. In March of 2021, Chun's guidance secured an $11 million field naming rights agreement with GESA Credit Union, through a partnership with Learfield | IMG College, resulting in Gesa Field at Martin Stadium. WSU Athletics raised a record $7.6 million in annual fund donations and a record $15 million in overall contributions in his first year. WSU improved on both totals in 2018-19 and, in 2019-20, WSU Athletics raised a program-record $26 million in overall giving. In 2020-21, Cougar Athletics raised a program-record $30 million and has averaged more than $28 million in fundraising over the past three years. Prior to the 2019-20 academic year, WSU completed fundraising for a $10 million renovation of its baseball stadium, the first athletics facility at WSU funded completely by private donations that was completed in the Fall of 2020.

Chun has been a national and conference leader since 2018, and is currently serving a four-year term on the prestigious NCAA Division I Council, a high-level group responsible for the day-to-day decision making for Division I. Chun also serves on the NCAA Division I Strategic Vision and Planning Committee as well as on the NCAA Division I Committee on Competitive Safeguards and Medical Aspects of Sports, and most recently, was named to the NCAA Division I Transformation Committee. In 2022, Chun was appointed as the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) 1st Vice President and has served on its Executive Committee since 2021. That same year, he was selected as the Pac-12 Conference's lone representative on the NCAA's Constitution Committee and in 2020, he was named co-chair for the newly formed Pac-12 ImPACT Leadership Council, which serves as an advisory group for Social Justice & Anti-Racism within the conference. In 2021, Chun became a co-founder and board member of the Asian American & Pacific Islander Athletics Alliance (4AAPI). Chun completed a three-year term on the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee in 2016 and served on the Division I Baseball Rules Committee from 2016-17. He previously served on the executive committee for the National Association for Athletics Development Directors (NAADD) and was a longtime board member for the Columbus, Ohio chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame.

Prior to arriving in Pullman, Chun spent five-and-a-half years leading Florida Atlantic University Athletics and the previous fifteen years at Ohio State University in a multitude of roles from 1997 through 2012, culminating in his role as the executive associate athletics director.

During his time at Florida Atlantic, Chun guided the Owls to unprecedented successes across academics, athletics, student-athlete development and fundraising. His top priority upon arriving at FAU was academics, which saw tremendous growth. During his tenure, FAU student-athletes posted a combined GPA above 3.0 for the first time in school history. School records were also posted for Graduate Success Rate (GSR) and Academic Progress Rate (APR) in 2016-17.

FAU Athletics rose to some of its greatest heights in competition during Chun's tenure, winning multiple championships, both individual and team, and numerous national and conference awards. Chun's focus on the complete student-athlete was highlighted by the 2016 National Association of Academic Advisors (NAA) Model Practices Award, awarded to FAU for displaying best practices in their programming for student-athletes. In December 2015, the university announced the largest single gift in its history, $16 million from the Schmidt Family Foundation.

Prior to FAU, Chun spent fifteen years at his alma mater, Ohio State. In his last role at Ohio State, Chun provided leadership and oversight for all facets of the external relations division from 2009-12. In the four years of overseeing the external relations division, Chun oversaw record fundraising years of $42 million in 2012, $41 million in 2011, and $39 million in 2010. Chun also was a lead member of the athletics department senior team that negotiated the then-largest multimedia rights deal in intercollegiate athletics history: a 10-year, $128 million partnership with IMG College in 2009. Chun also served as the daily administrative liaison with the football program.

A native of Strongsville, Ohio, Chun earned a Bachelor's Degree from Ohio State University and a Master's degree from Duquesne University. He and his wife, Natalie, also an OSU alumna, have three daughters (Vanna, Kennedy and Gretta) who enjoy their dog (Little Brother).

Washington State University Director of Athletics Pat Chun announced June 7, 2022, that Ike Ukaegbu has been named Deputy Director of Athletics at Washington State.

Ukaegbu arrives in Pullman having spent the past seven years as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Compliance at Texas Christian University (TCU). While there, he oversaw all areas of TCU's comprehensive athletics compliance operations for the department's 22 sport programs, was the Sport Administrator for the Men's Basketball, Swimming & Diving and Rifle programs, and was also a member of the Athletic Director's Executive Team. Ukaegbu will serve as the sport administrator of football and men's basketball.

Throughout the 2020-21 academic year, Ukaegbu was one of 20 individuals who participated in the yearlong NCAA Pathway Program, which prepares senior-level athletic administrators to attain positions as directors of athletics or conference commissioners.

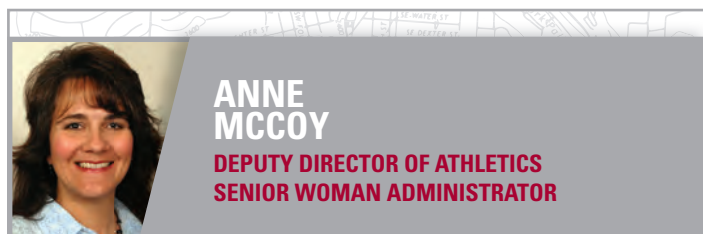

Ukaegbu completed the third cohort of the TCU Master Leaders Program and also served as a member of the department of athletics Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) Council. As part of his DEI Council responsibilities, he represented the athletics department in the university's search for a Chief Inclusion Officer. In August 2020, he was selected as the TCU Chancellor's Staff Award recipient, which recognizes a university staff member noted for exemplary service and above and beyond contributions to the welfare of the campus community. Ukaegbu, in collaboration with other athletics department staff members and campus partners, spearheaded the launch of TCU's Name, Image & Likeness program, "Scaled to Succeed."

Prior to TCU, Ukaegbu served one year as an Associate Athletics Director for compliance at Virginia Commonwealth University. At VCU, he oversaw all areas of compliance for the department's 17 sport programs, was a member of the senior administrative team, and also served as the sport administrator/supervisor for women's soccer.

Ukaegbu spent two years as the Director of Athletic Compliance at Boise State University, while also serving in the compliance offices at Cal State Fullerton (2010-11), American University (2008-10) and Florida Atlantic (2007-08).

Throughout his career, Ukaegbu has served on numerous institutional, conference and national committees and organizations including the NCAA Eligibility Center Division I External Advisory Group, the National Association for Athletics Compliance (NAAC) Thought Leaders Group, and the National Association for Athletics Compliance (NAAC) Convention Committee, in which he chaired the Networking Subcommittee. He also represented the NCAA Division I membership on the NCAA Eligibility Center Vice President Search Committee in the Fall of 2016.

Ukaegbu earned a B.A. in Political Science with a Minor in Pre-Law from the University of Arizona in 2007 and a Master's of Science in Sports Administration from St. Thomas University (Miami, Fla.) in 2008. He and his wife, Katie, have three children, Devin, Rosie and Spencer.

Veteran intercollegiate athletics administrator Anne McCoy has served Washington State University since 2001 and was promoted from associate director to senior associate director of athletics in 2004. Her appointment to senior woman administrator came in the summer of 2007 and in 2013 she was named deputy director of athletics.

In her current capacity she is charged with supervising all aspects of WSU's day-to-day operations along with several areas within the department. She also serves as the sport supervisor for women's basketball, volleyball, soccer and rowing.

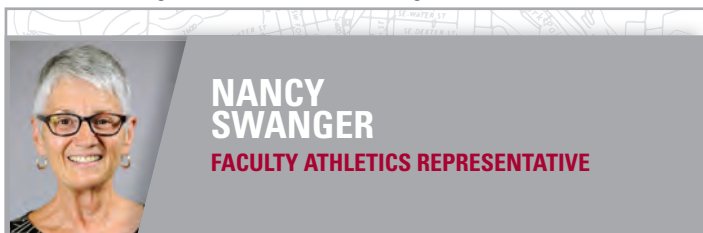

McCoy currently serves as the liaison to the Pac-12 Men's and Women's Swimming and Diving Coaches. She has completed positions on several other conference committees, including Vice President of the Executive Committee, Pac-12 Women's Basketball Tournament and Nominating Committees, and the Diversity Leadership Initiative. She is the past chair of the NCAA Women's Rowing Committee and is a past vice president of the Pac-10 Conference.

A Wisconsin native, McCoy earned a bachelor's degree in sports management in 1989 from the University of Massachusetts. While an undergraduate, she worked for the Pittsburgh Penguins professional hockey organization, expanding the club's season ticket base. McCoy also served an internship as the assistant athletic business manager at the University of Connecticut, and was instrumental in designing and implementing a comprehensive computerized budget-tracking system.

McCoy served in several capacities at the University of Maine from 1989-1995, lastly as associate director of athletics and senior woman administrator. At Maine, she supervised men's basketball, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's swimming and softball in addition to the athletic business office, ticket office, retail store and cheerleading staff and operations. She took a similar administrative positive at Saint Louis University from 1995-96.

In 1996, McCoy joined the staff at Portland State University as associate director of athletics and senior woman administrator, and was promoted to senior associate director of athletics in 1998. At PSU, she managed all internal staff and the daily operations of the department, representing the director of athletics as needed. McCoy also supervised men's and women's golf, cross country/track and field, and women's volleyball, soccer, tennis and softball.

McCoy and her husband Brian have two children, daughter Taylor, a former swimming student-athlete at Washington State, and son Jake.

Dr. Nancy Swanger begins her sixth year as WSU's Faculty Athletics Representative to the Pac-12 Conference. Dr. Swanger is the Associate Dean and Director of the School of Hospitality Business Management in the Carson College of Business at Washington State University, starting back in 2000.

In addition to her administrative duties, she teaches various courses in the curriculum—professional development, cost controls, and special topics focusing on current trends or industry issues. Dr. Swanger has more than 40 years of restaurant experience as a co-worker, manager, district manager, and owner. She and her husband, Larry, owned and operated up to eight Subway restaurants from 1988-2017, and they own two independent concepts in Moscow, Idaho—Gambino's and the Varsity Diner.

Her research interests lie in the areas of quick-serve restaurant operations, food safety/sanitation, and hospitality curriculum. Prior to coming to WSU, Nancy taught at the University of Idaho and Lewis-Clark State College.

Nancy and her husband Larry have four children.

WASHINGTON STATE SPORTS NETWORK from LEARFIELD

Cougar football games are broadcast live on the radio throughout the Pacific Northwest via the Washington State Sports Network from Learfield. The 20-station football network reaches from Alaska to British Columbia to Oregon and across the state of Washington and can be heard worldwide via the internet on the Varsity Network App and Sirius XM Satellite radio. Cougar football broadcasts begin two hours before kickoff, carry through the game and conclude with post-game coach and player interviews and the Coug Talk call-in show.

The Washington State Sports Network also features radio coverage of WSU men's basketball, baseball, women's basketball and women's volleyball, and the Cougar Coaches Show in the fall, winter and spring seasons.

Learfield manages corporate marketing opportunities and on-site promotions at WSU football and basketball games as well as oversees sales for all signage at Gesa Field, Friel Court at Beasley Coliseum and all Cougar competition sites.

COUGAR FOOTBALL BROADCAST TEAM

MATT CHAZANOW

Matt Chazanow begins his eighth season as the Cougars play-by-play announcer. Chazanow calls the action for Cougar football, men's basketball and baseball broadcasts.

Chazanow has extensive experience in broadcasting at the highest level of collegiate football, including calling national play-by-play broadcasts for ACC football. He also has called postseason national men's basketball for the SEC, Big East and AAC tournaments along with SEC and ACC postseason baseball. Chazanow also has worked with Westwood One national radio and Pac-12 Network television.

ALEX BRINK

Alex Brink begins his fifth year as an analyst on the Cougar football broadcasts. As a student-athlete for WSU, Brink was a three-time All-Pac-10 quarterback from 2004-07, setting school records for career touchdowns and passing yards. He is also the only starting quarterback in school history to lead the Cougars to three Apple Cup victories. The Eugene, Ore. native was also a three-time All-Academic honoree and a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete during his senior year. Brink was selected in the seventh round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans, where he played two seasons before spending six seasons in the Canadian Football League.

Brink is co-founder of EForce Sports, a performance training, skill development and fitness company in Portland and has served as a quarterback coach at the Elite11 Quarterback Competition. He has previously been part of the IMG Cougar Roadshow pregame broadcast and was a contributor on NBCSports Northwest as well as ESPN 1080 and Rip City Radio in Portland.

JESSAMYN MCINTYRE

Jessamyn McIntyre returns for her 11th season as a sideline reporter for Cougar football. McIntyre was an executive producer for Q13 FOX in Seattle and previously worked as an executive producer for 710 ESPN Seattle (2009-20) and for ESPN Radio in Bristol, Conn. (2005-09). Additionally, she hosted the Seattle Seahawks postgame show on Northwest Cable News and served on the board of directors for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.
